I once saw the same cat twice. That's how I know we're living in the Matrix.

I checked on Google Earth. There's no island called Gilligans.

Michael Jackson was a pervert. But that doesn't mean he didn't make some fantastic music.

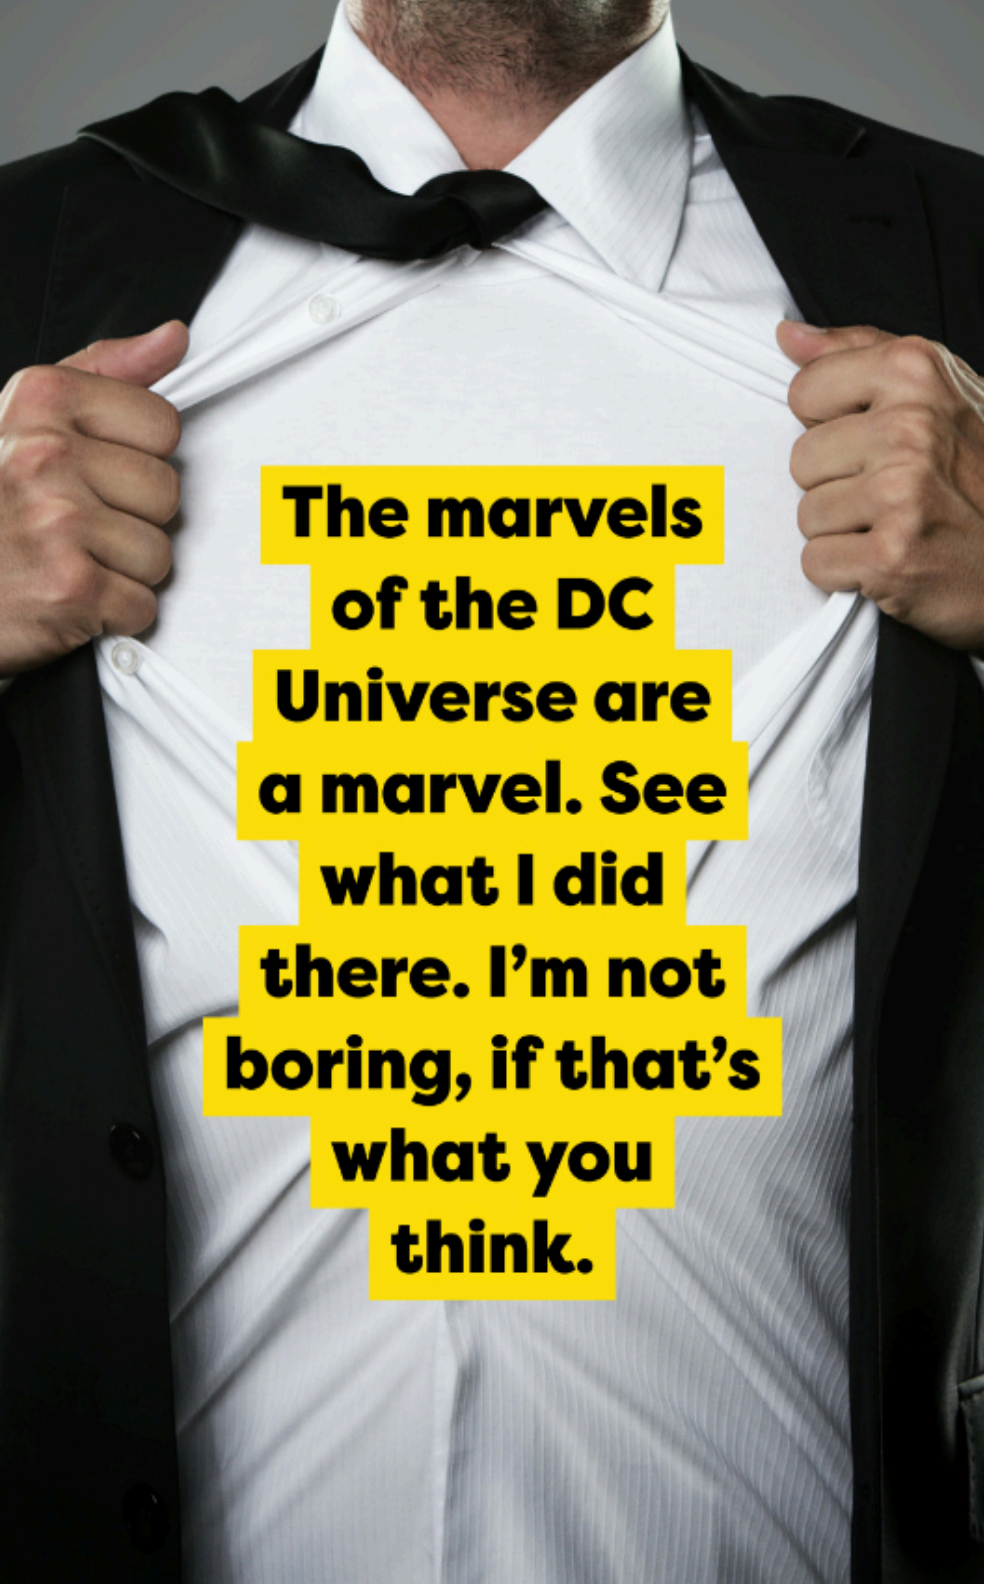

SET AN APPOINTMENT FOR THE BETTY DAVIS EYE CLINIC

If my life is a movie, it's a low-budget indie film.

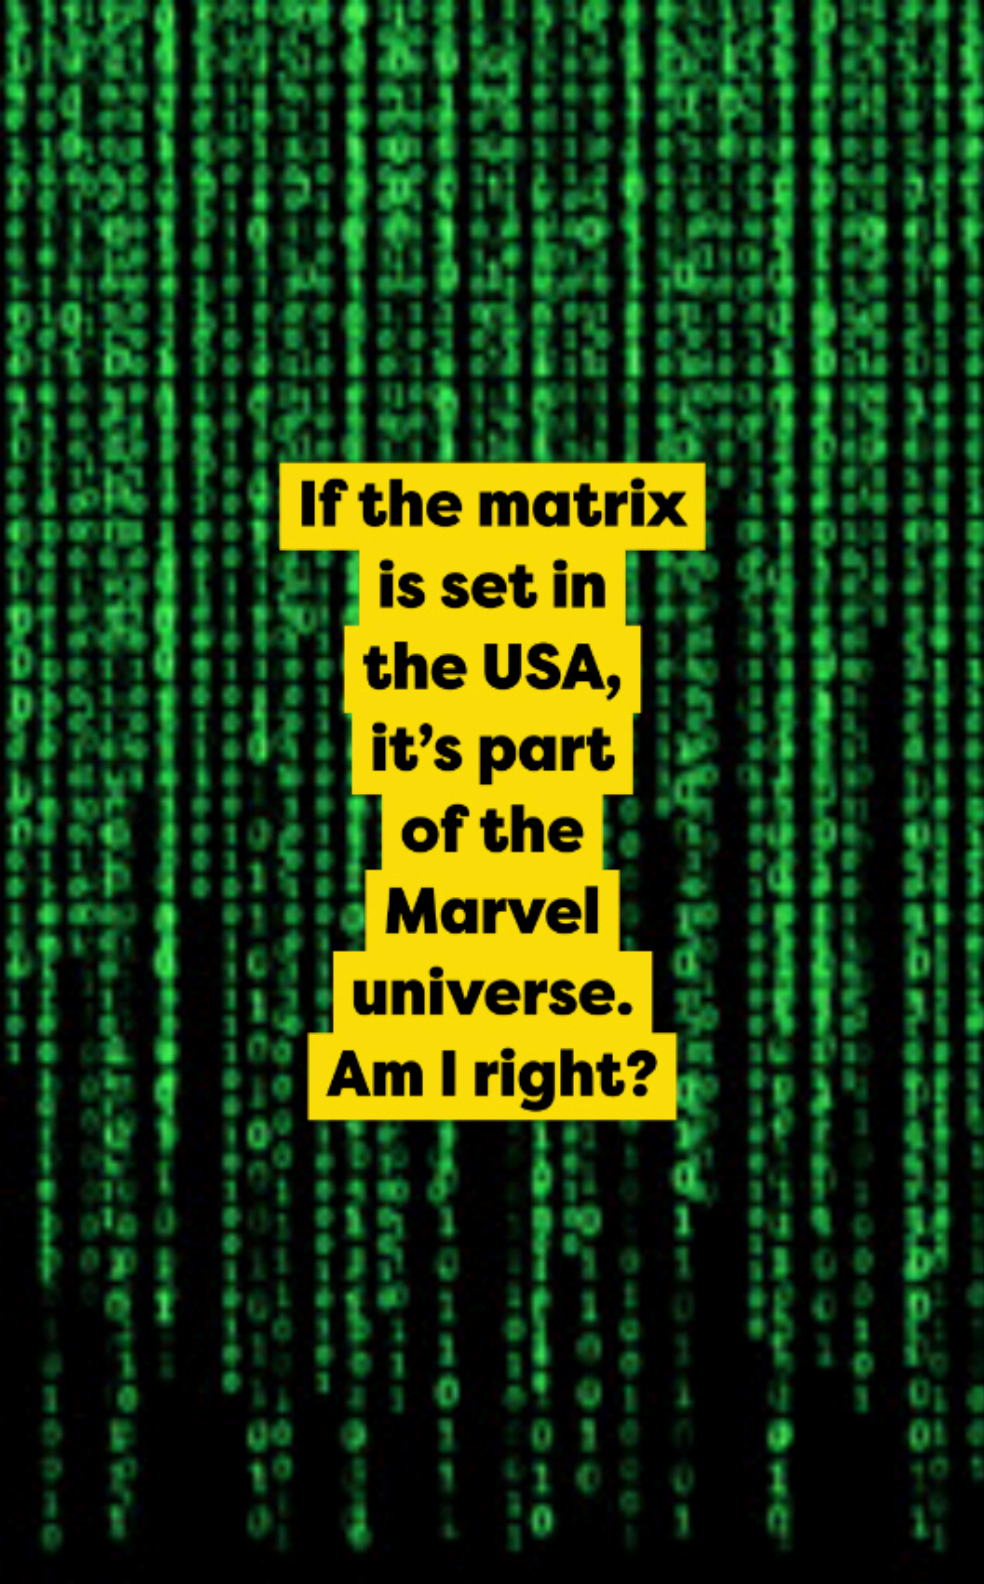

Being that there's a reality show about four older Teletubbies and a bunch of little Teletubbies. We can posit there are more of these fuckers out there. We shouldn't buy into their cutesy bullshit. We have to interrogate them and find out what their plan is. We can't assume they all just fang about in the scrub twenty-four-seven. They use advanced technologies, which means they may be able to produce advanced weapons. Maybe they plan a full-scale eradication of all human life, and if this is the case, we must act now before they initiate their plan.

KFC is not made out of rabbits. That's a lie probably spread by Mcdonald's, who makes their thick shakes out of pig fat.

The marvels of the DC Universe are a marvel. See what I did there. I'm not boring, if that's what you think.

People say the Jews are the problem. But some sitcoms are quite good.

If the matrix is set in the USA, it's part of the Marvel universe. Am I right?

People aren’t into sleepovers anymore. I wasted my money on that big-screen TV.

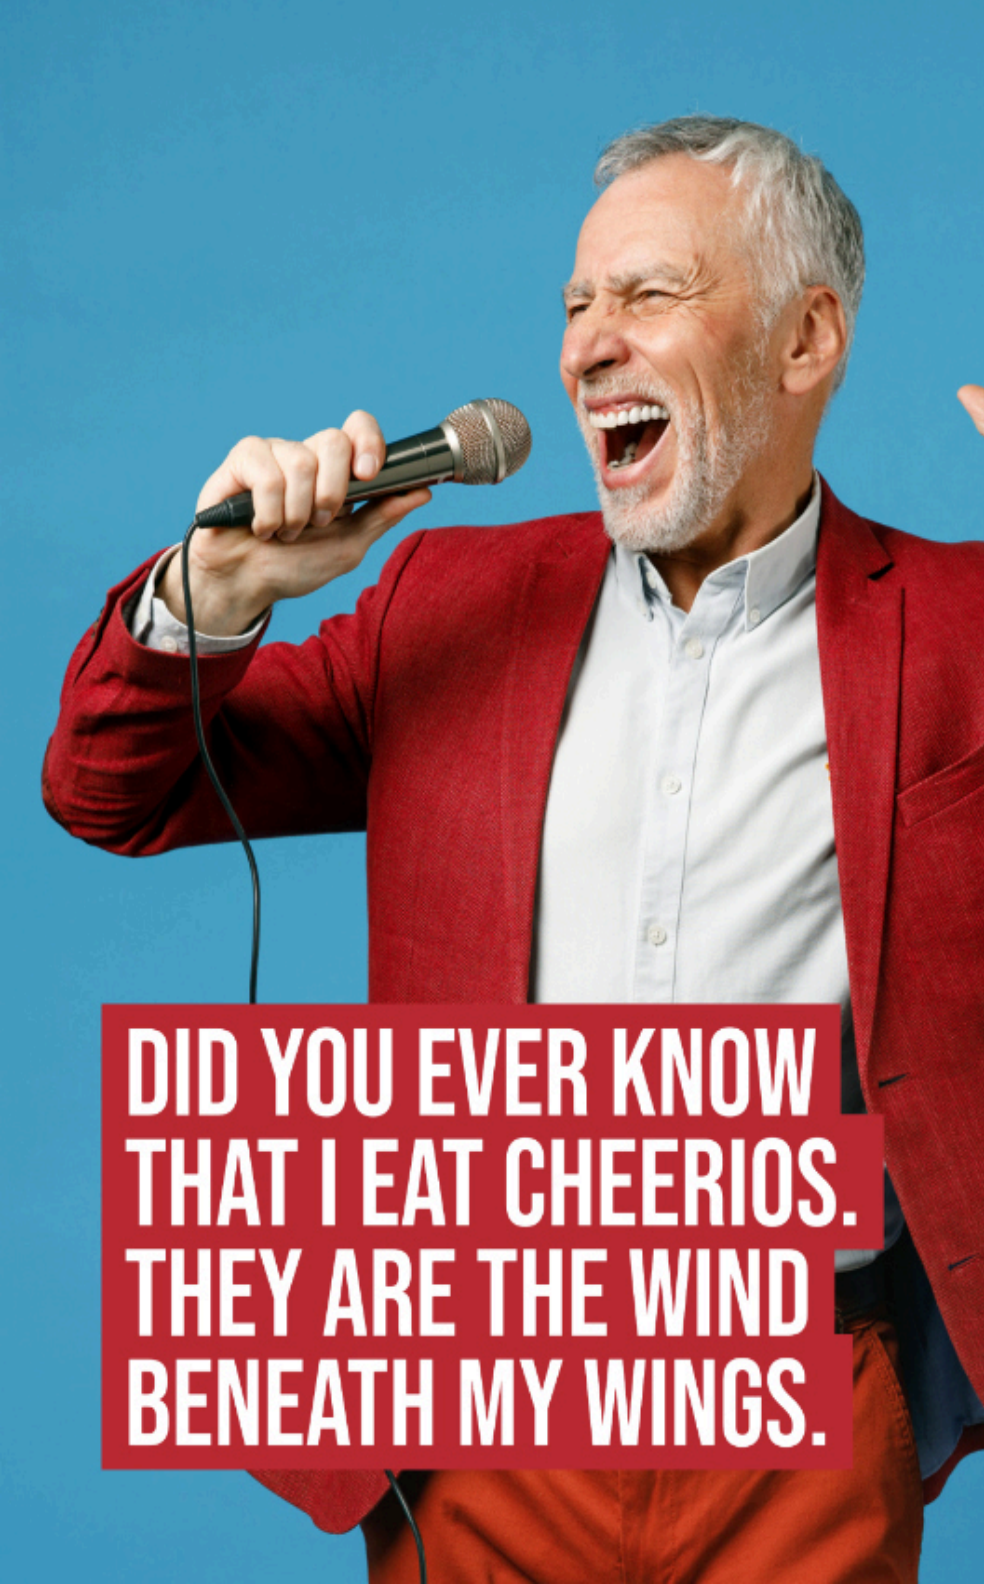

I'VE BEEN THINKING OF WRITING A PLAY CALLED EASTSIDE STORY, IT'S A HOMAGE TO WESTSIDE STORY BUT SET IN CHINA!

Fashion is for people who can't Rock a blue skivvy with mustard-coloured corduroy pants, and a pair of crocks, and a trucker hat with Justin Bieber's face on it.

Where do I begin? It all started when I ate a week-old bagel. That's when the powers came. I am Mould Man. King of Decay.

Paramount Pictures presents ‘Who gives a fuck', starring 'I don’t care’ and featuring ‘Whatever!’

I have no idea who Cindy Margolis is, but I've heard her name mentioned three times this week. I'm scared to look her up on Google in case she's a porn star. I'm not going down that rabbit hole again.

DID YOU EVER KNOW THAT I EAT CHEERIOS.
THEY ARE THE WIND
BENEATH MY WINGS.

Bojack is not even a real horse,
it's a voice actor playing a horse.

Is it just me, or does the arrow at the base of the Amazon Logo look like the underside of a bendy penis?

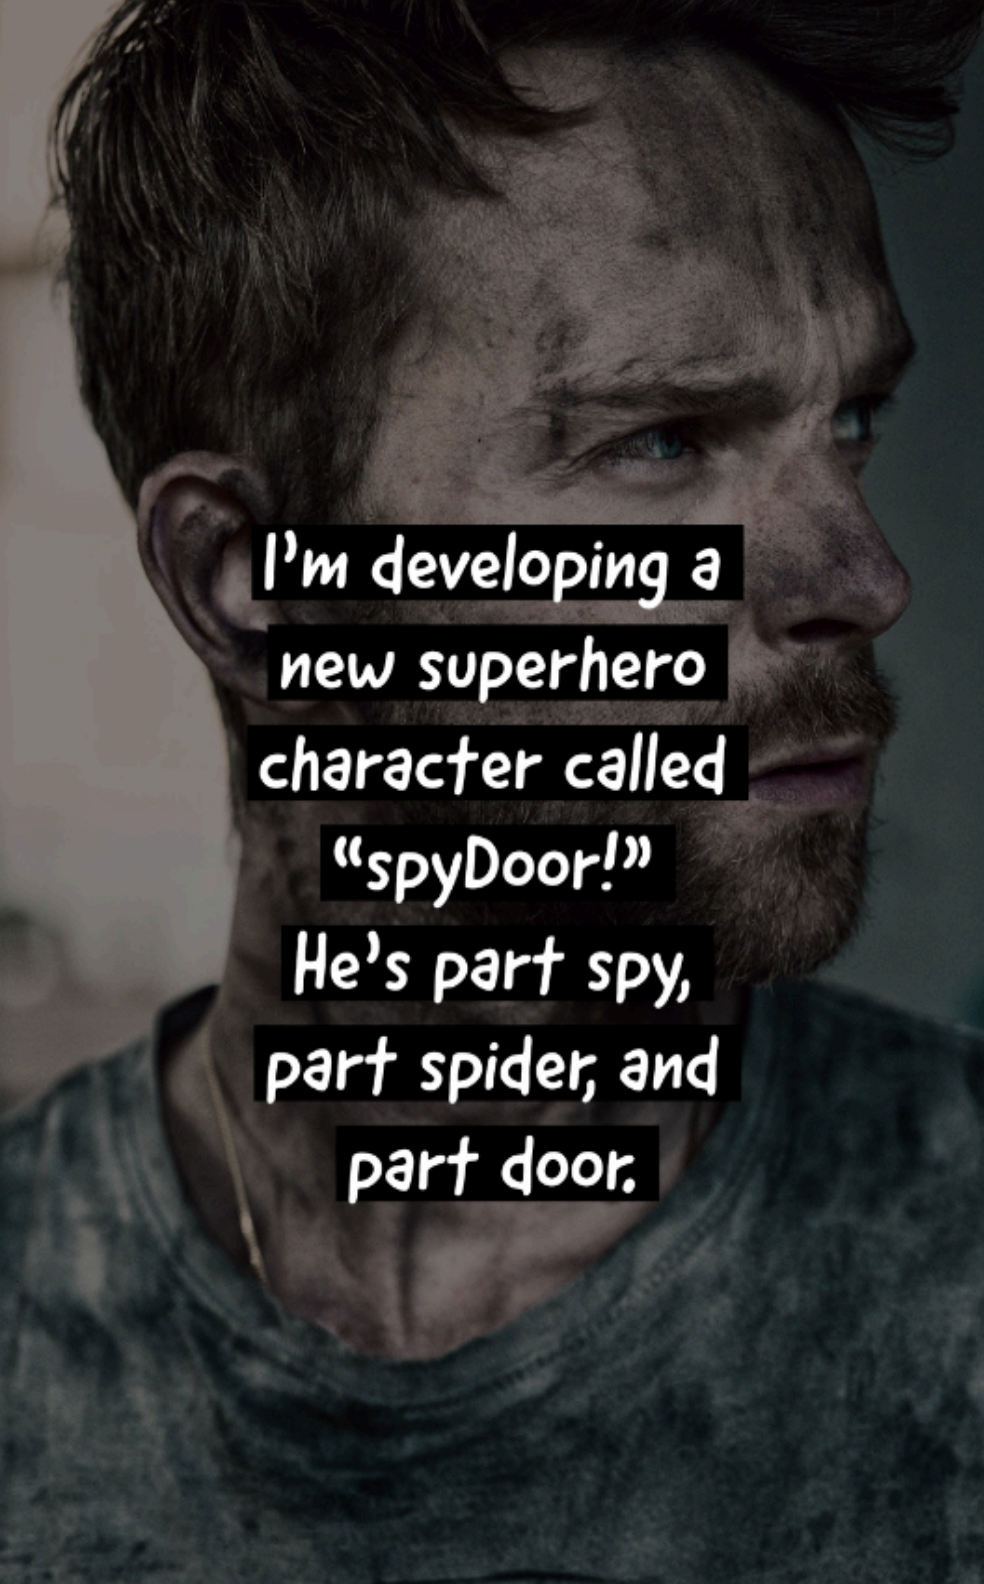

I got right into Pokemon Go. I had to catch 'em all. But then I got hit by that car. Fuck Pokemon, it ruined my life.

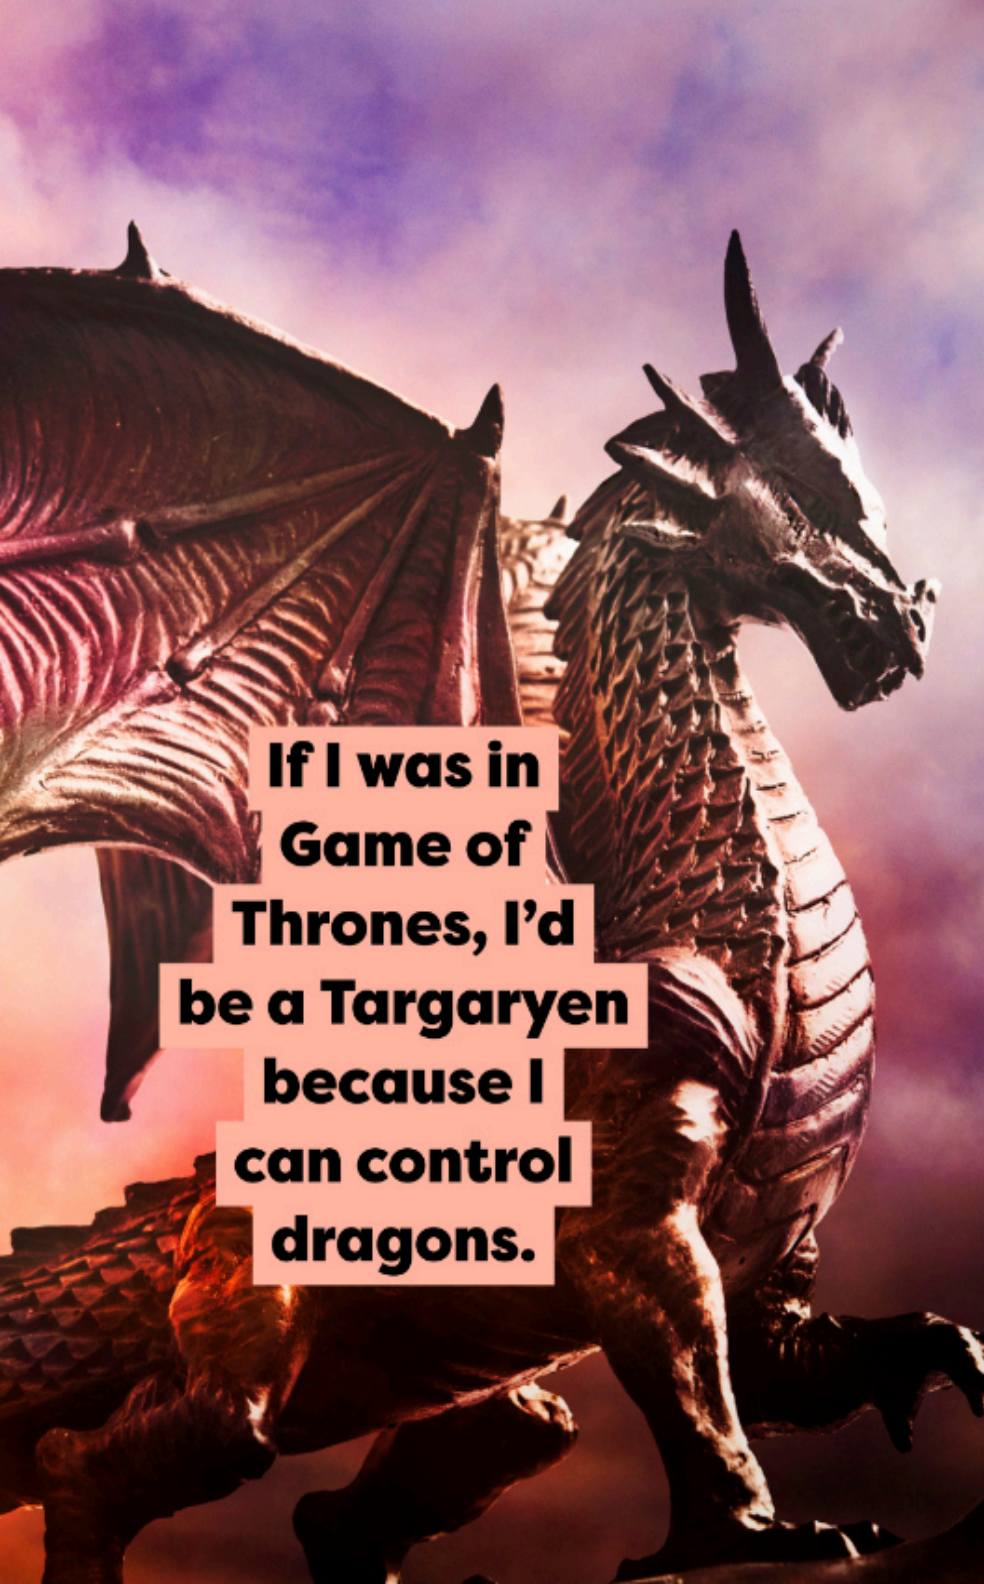

The sorting hat put me in Slytherin. I turned one person into a frog and now I'm being punished.

I was banned from KFC. But I've got a fake moustache. Gotta get my chicken.

Toblerone thinks they're real clever with the whole triangle thing.

"THE GREATEST GIFT YOU CAN GIVE TO ANOTHER IS THE GIFT OF COOKIES,' SAID THE BLUE MONSTER.

I'm developing a new superhero
character called
"spyDoor!"
He's part spy, part spider, and part door.

If I was in Game of Thrones, I'd be a Targaryen because I can control dragons.

Not many people from the '50s and '60s listened to rap music as kids. Racists!

Jack Sparrow. I know that name from somewhere. I think we used to do tenpin together. No, that was Jack Spears. He probably went to my school. He was probably that dude with the parrot and the funny hat.

WAS H. R.
PUFF'N'STUFF
BASED ON A TRUE

Some people think I'm a geek, but they've never seen me play Mario Kart.

Remember tango and cash
Do you mean the Last tango in Paris
No, that's a different movie
Oh, the one with the dog
No, that's Tango and Hooch
I think you mean Hooch and Turner

BEYONCÉ HAS A TWIN
SISTER NAMED BEYONC B

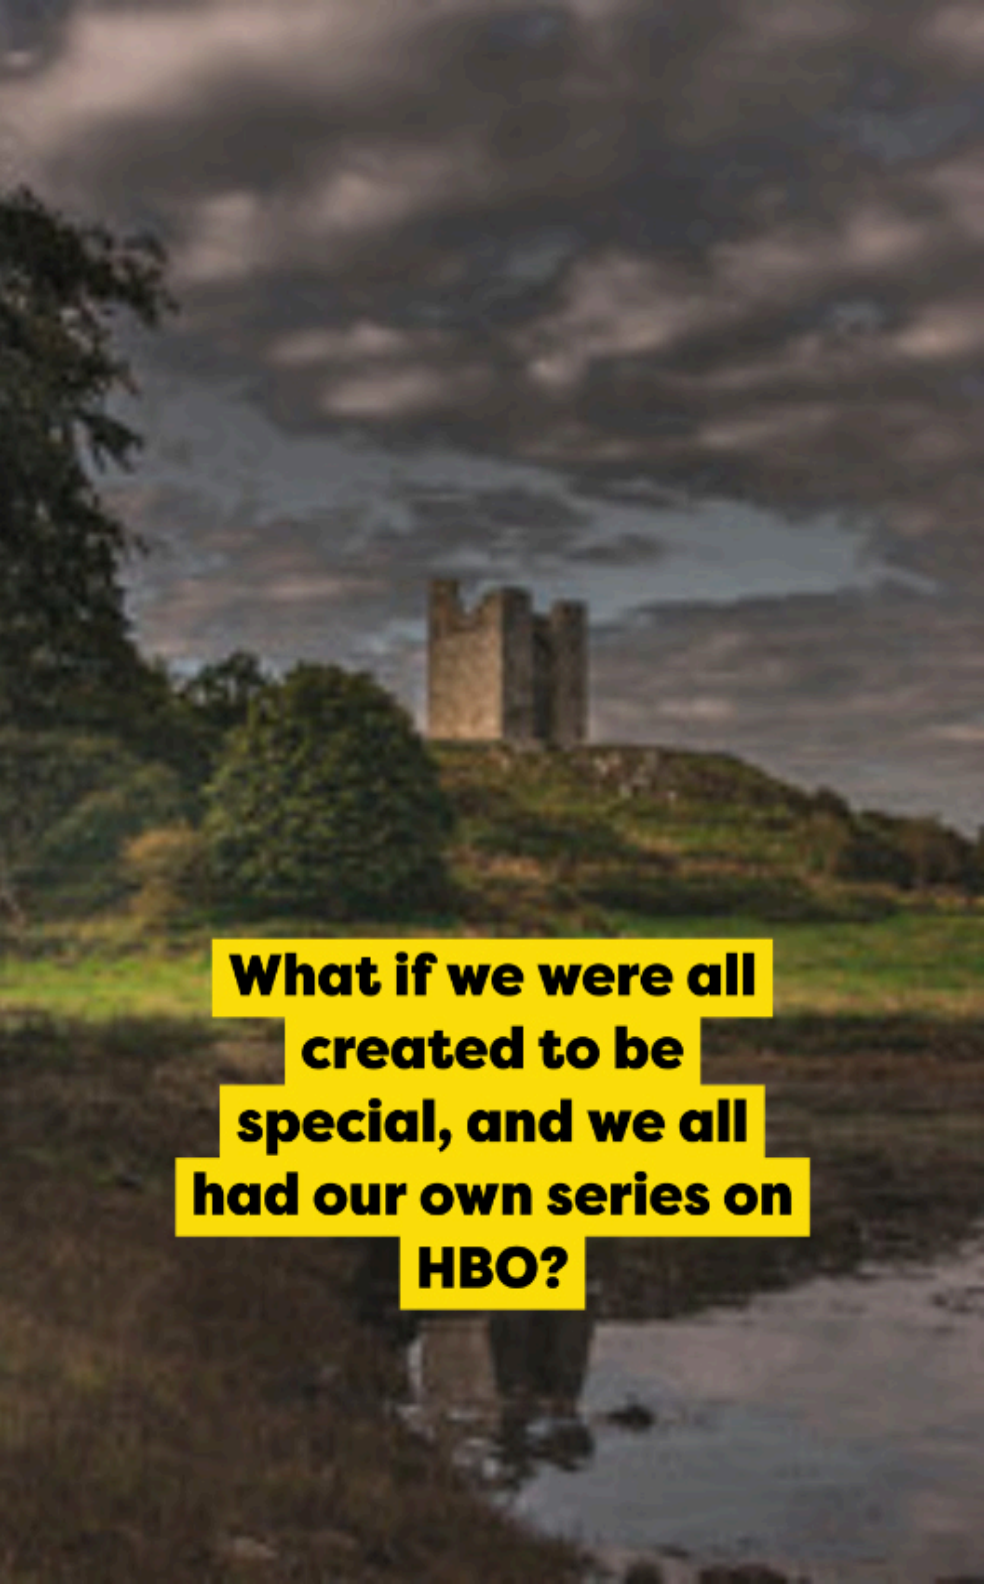

JARED SAYS HE'S BEEN CHANNELLING HARRY POTTER FOR HIS TRANSITION TO THE SECOND COMING OF JESUS. HE SAID THAT "SO FAR I CAN'T TURN WATER INTO WINE, BUT I CAN TURN IT INTO DR PEPPER IF I CONCENTRATE HARD ENOUGH."

People get all wrapped up in the MCU, it's crazy. It's make-believe guys. The DC universe is heaps more real.

Remember when we thought the internet would make the world a better place? Turns out we were all wrong. But at least I can buy things that are illegal in my country.

While the number of people who got rich off bitcoin was many, the number of people who lost money was larger.

I've stopped wearing my smartwatch. I don't use the fucking thing. And no one comments on it. Not even when I do voice notes in front of them.

They say if you want to be a blogger you have to guest post on other people's blogs. But the little guys have been pushed out by the big media company blogs. I guess I'll guest post in Fortune Magazine or the New York Times.

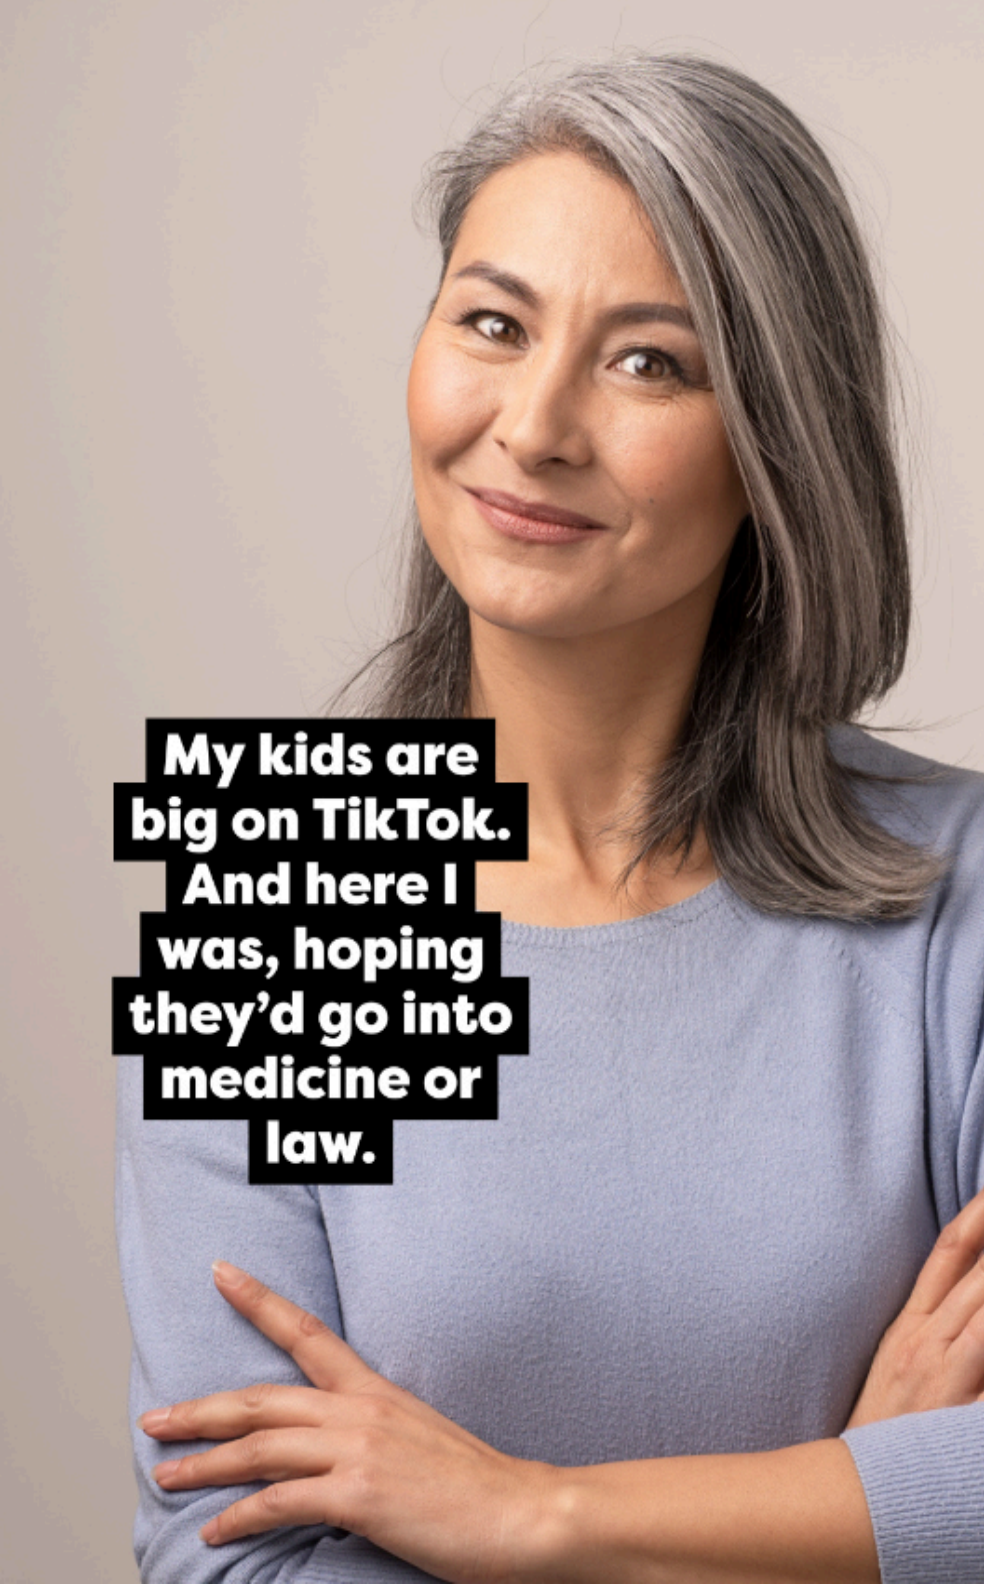

The internet is a shit show. After I'm finished learning how to code, I'm going to start my own internet. No douchebags allowed.

It used to be that if you had knowledge or talent, you could get seen online. More and more, the equation is talent or knowledge plus money, or just money. It's turned into a pay-to-be-seen system.

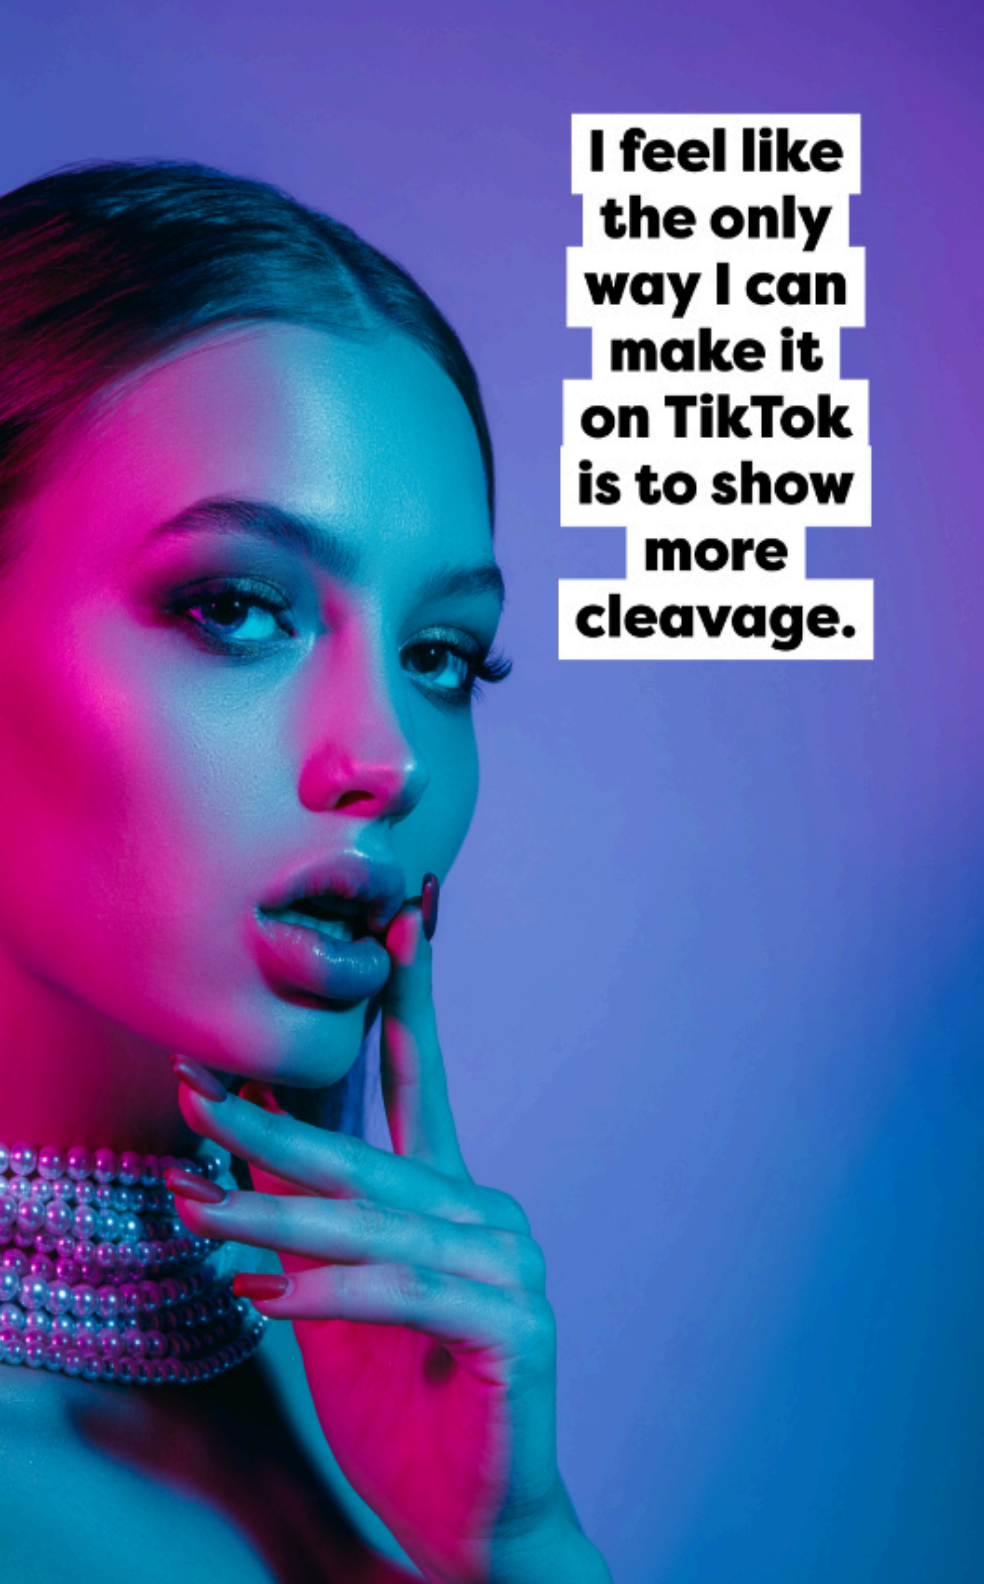

It's great that I can trade online now instead of going through a broker. I can lose my money faster than ever now.

I don't know why I spent $400 on a pair of Beats headphones. I can't wear them out because they make me feel like an imposter. And I can't use them in bed because they're too chunky.

I can't tell whether I'm wasting my life online and whether I should get out there and experience the real world. But it's so hard because I no longer relate to people, and no one cares about my monkey NFT. And I paid top dollar for that.

I was one of these fools that imagined we were going to use technology to make the world a better place. On the upside, I carry around unlimited porn in my pocket.

I've got no idea who's going to pay for my google photos account when I die, it would be a shame for all those photos of my dog to just be deleted.

I was going to change the world with new systems that made the world fairer. So I registered forty-two URLs for each part of my system. That's as far as I got. I'm $800 down, but I've learnt a valuable lesson about my own limitations.

I thought I'd be using zoom more after the pandemic. I talked to my family more when we were all in isolation.

Remember when blogging was a thing? Before people spent all their time online scrolling through Facebook or Instagram.

I got banned from Facebook for showing a bit of flange. But my boyfriend can post a music video of Cardi-B showing off her flange and it's not a problem.

I saved a lot more money once I realised I don't need the latest and greatest. I could have brought myself a wife from the Philippines with all the money I've spent on tech, half of which never got used.

All my friends are on Xbox. My real-life friends are lame. They all have jobs and wash their own clothes. Fucking losers.

I run four anti-virus programs. My computer is really slow now. But at least I'm not going to get an STI anytime soon.

I remember the heyday of eBay where you could get a thousand dollars for a beanie baby.

Now I do all my shopping online. I only need to leave the house to attend the odd funeral.

ONE DAY THE STUPID FUCKING INTERNET WILL SHUT DOWN AND ALL OF MY HARD WORK CREATING WILL HAVE BEEN FOR NOTHING.
