IMAGINE HAVING MAGICAL POWERS,
BUT HAVING TO KEEP IT A SECRET
SO OTHERS DON'T GET JEALOUS.
THAT'S HOW I FEEL.
- RICKY

SHOUT OUT TO ALL THE ARIES FOLK. SOMEONE NEW IS GOING TO COME INTO ALL OF OUR LIVES THIS WEEK.

If a ghost farts, can you smell it?

SAGITTARIUS

ONE OF YOUR
FLIP-FLOPS BREAK,
ONLY TO REALISE
YOU CAN FIX IT WITH A BREAD CLIP, THANKS TO A HOROSCOPE
YOU READ EARLIER.

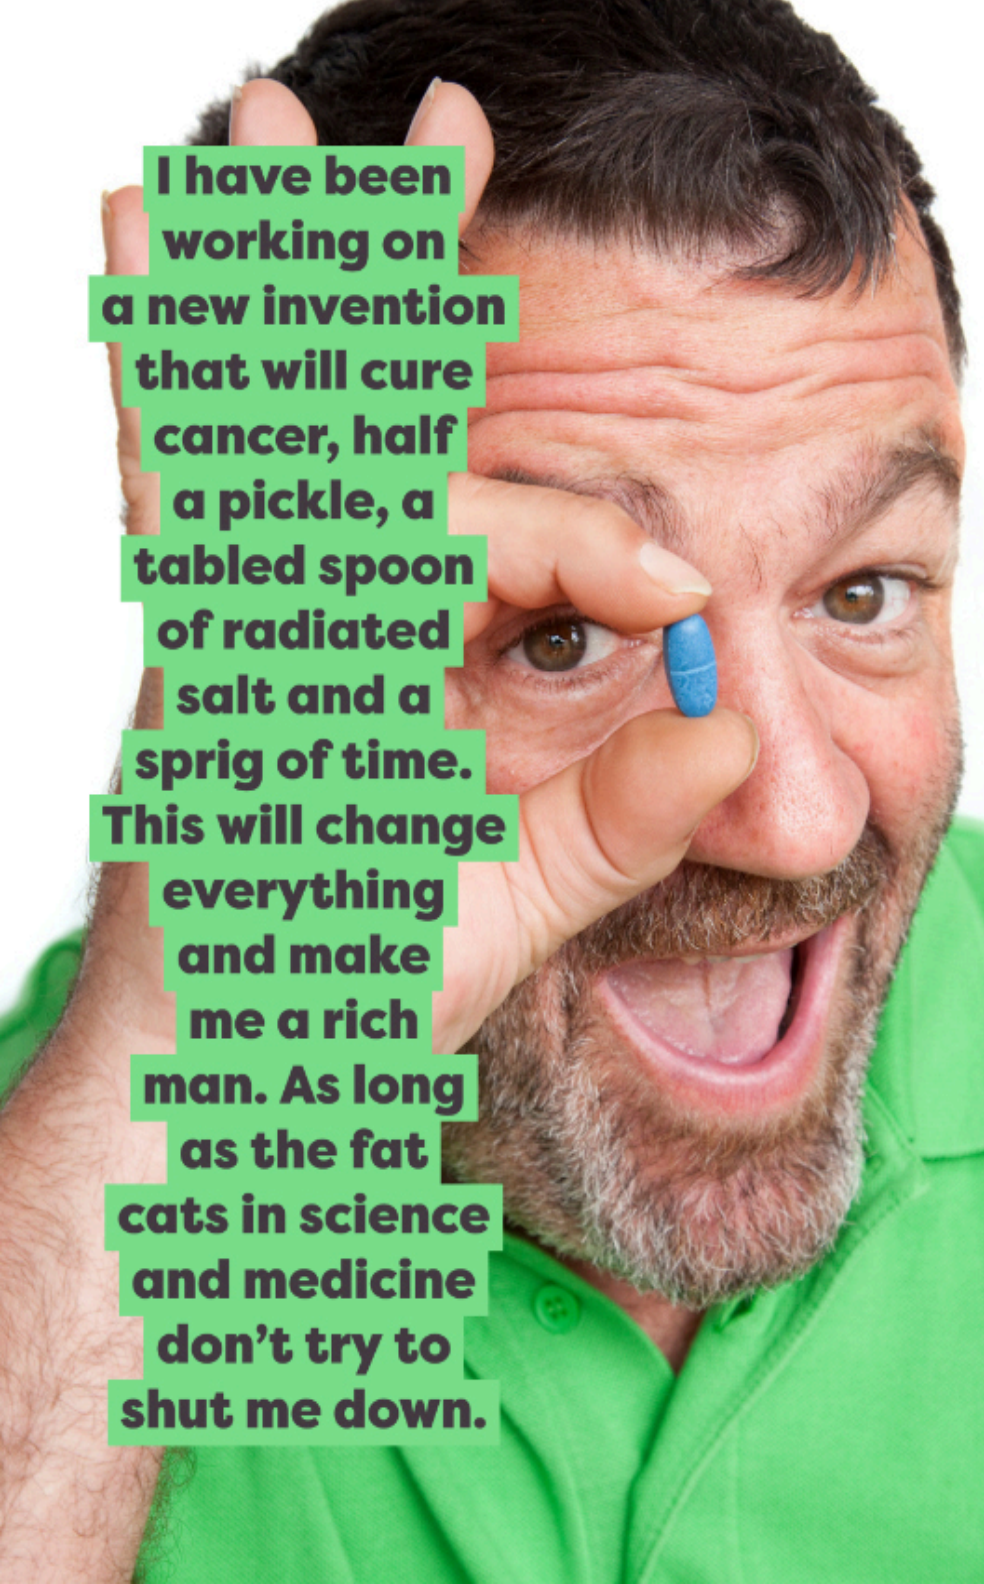

My doctor brother refuses to endorse my new all-natural cure for diabetes, fucking arsehole. We could be raking it in and helping cure people's diabetes.

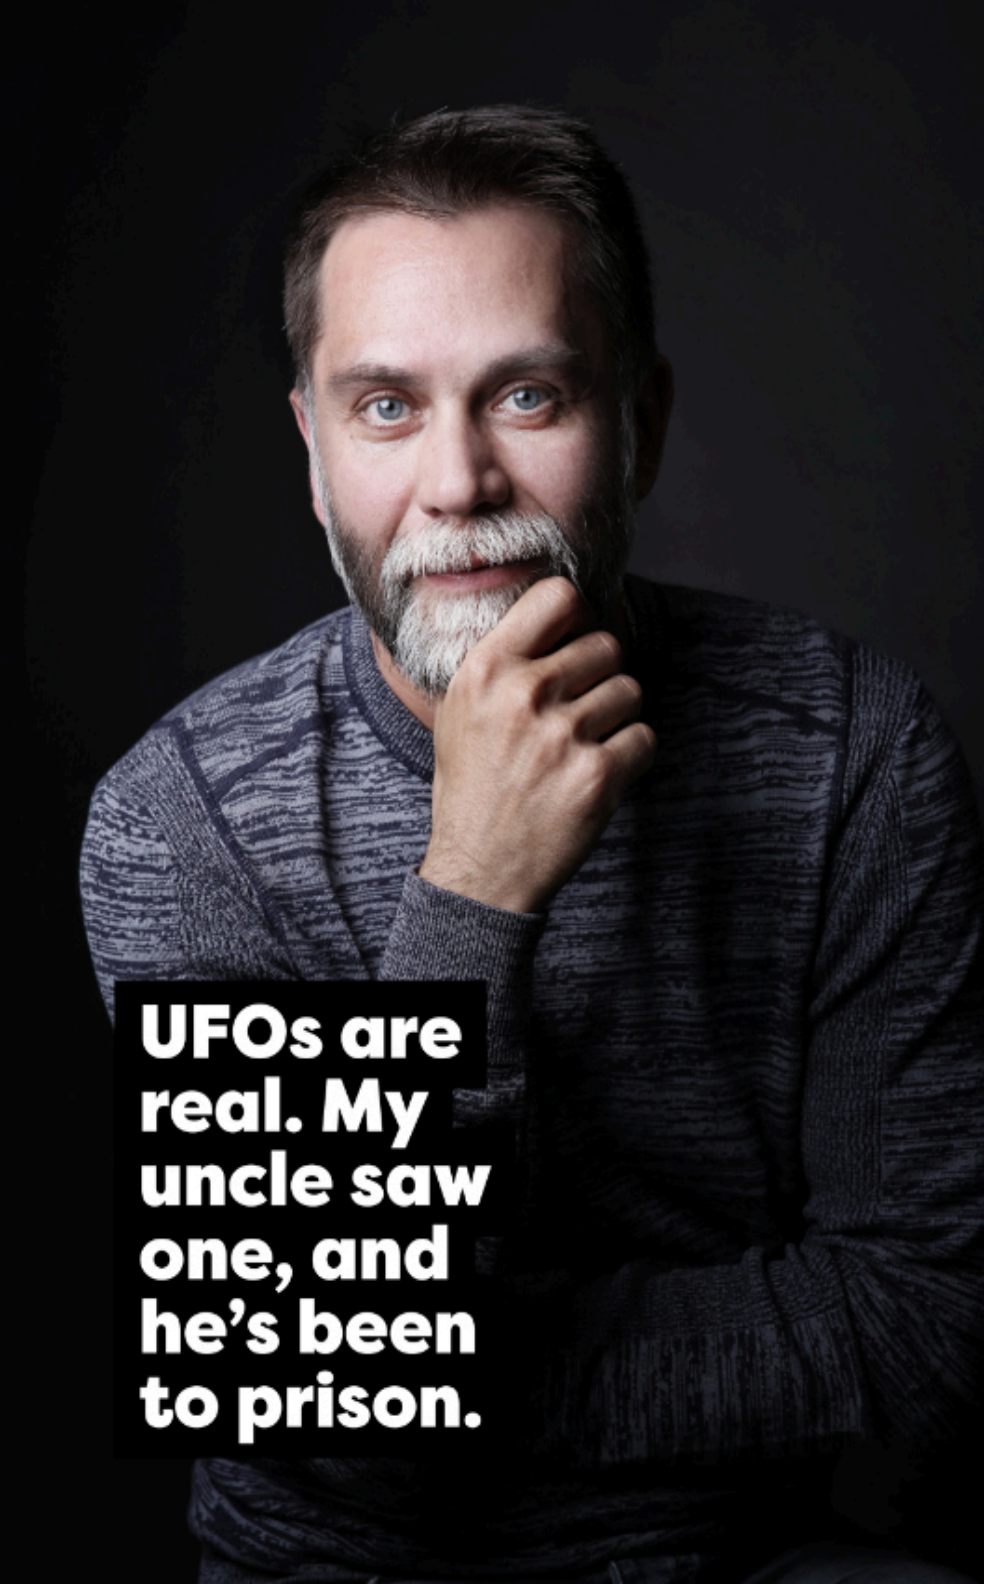

I've got all this secret ancient knowledge that came to me in a dream. I don't know whether to write a book or start a commune or both.

Dad didn't believe in spiritual healing, that's why the licorice smoothies didn't cure his cancer and he died a horrible death. He should have listened. I spent hours researching online.

NEEDING TO FIND A GOOD CHIROPRACTOR. MY 3RD AND 4TH CHAKRA'S ARE OUT OF ALIGNMENT. I'LL CONSULT MY HOROSCOPES. I'M PRETTY SURE JUPITER IS RISING, I CAN FEEL IT IN MY WATERS.
- BETHANY

Science is just 21st-century witchcraft. You can't tell me that landing men on the moon didn't involve a little eye-of-newt!
- ADELAIDE

I have been working on a new invention that will cure cancer, half a pickle, a tabled spoon of radiated salt and a sprig of time. This will change everything and make me a rich man. As long as the fat cats in science and medicine don't try to shut me down.

UFOs are real. My uncle saw one, and he's been to prison.

LEO - THIS WEEK ALL YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE, IN YOUR DREAMS!

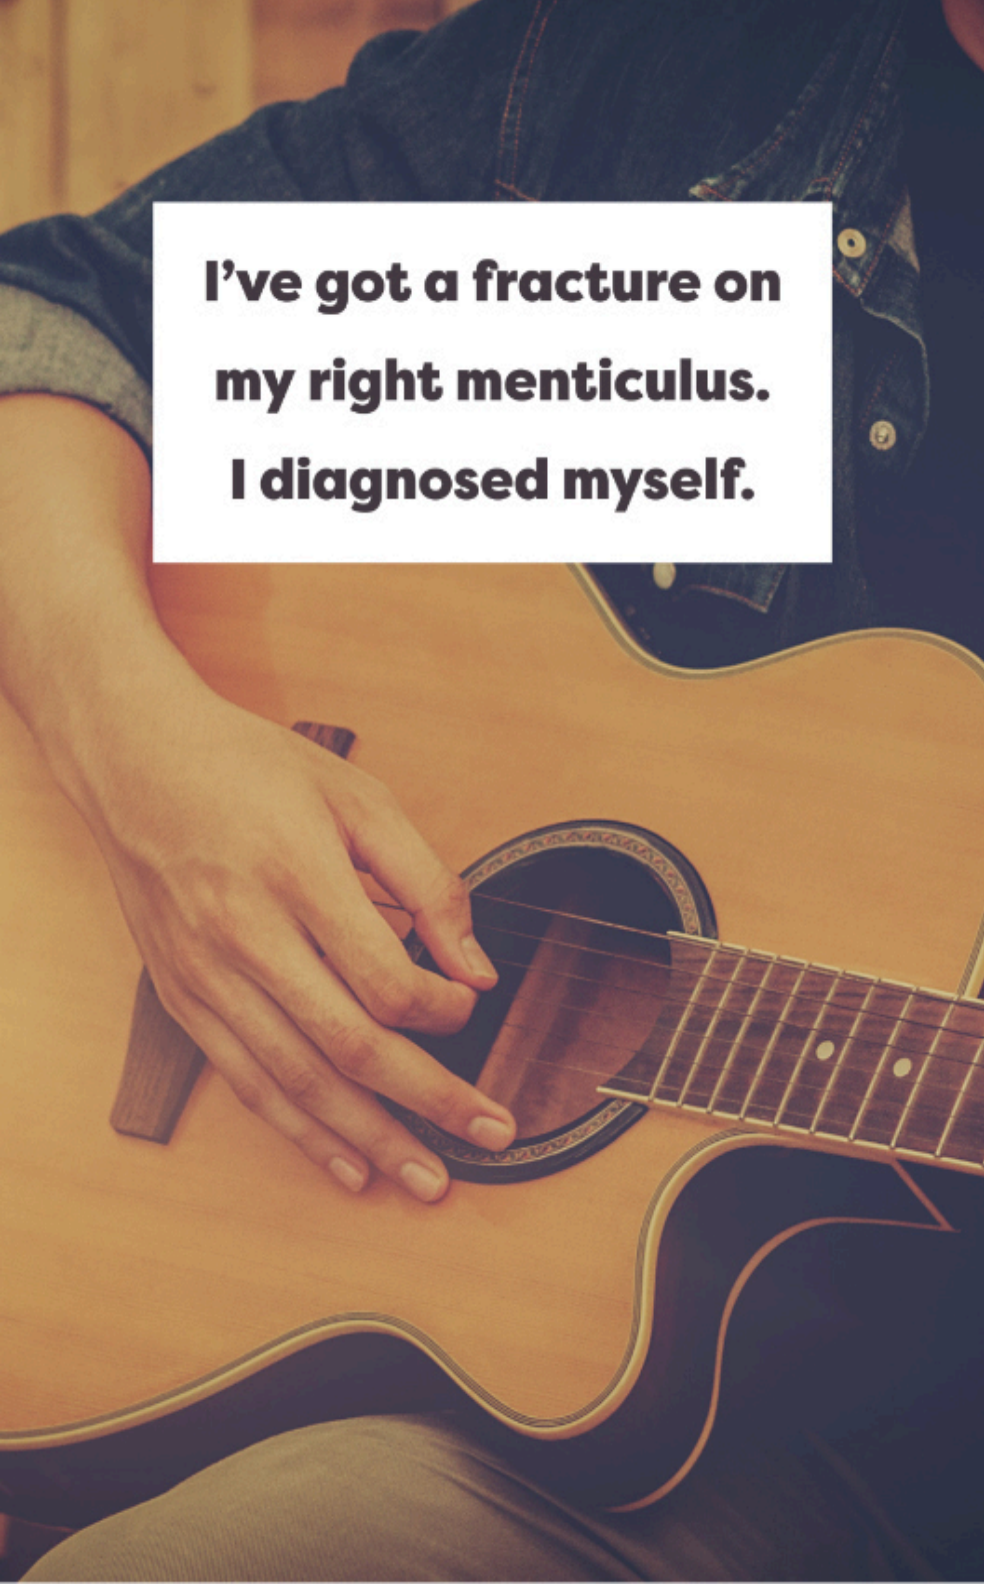

We are living in the age of Aquarius, everything is about to change. Then I'll be able to tell my mum I told her so.

People with spiritual powers find cures for cancer all the time, yet modern medicine makes your hair fall out. Think about that for a minute.

My man is such a Sagittarius, hitting me and shit.

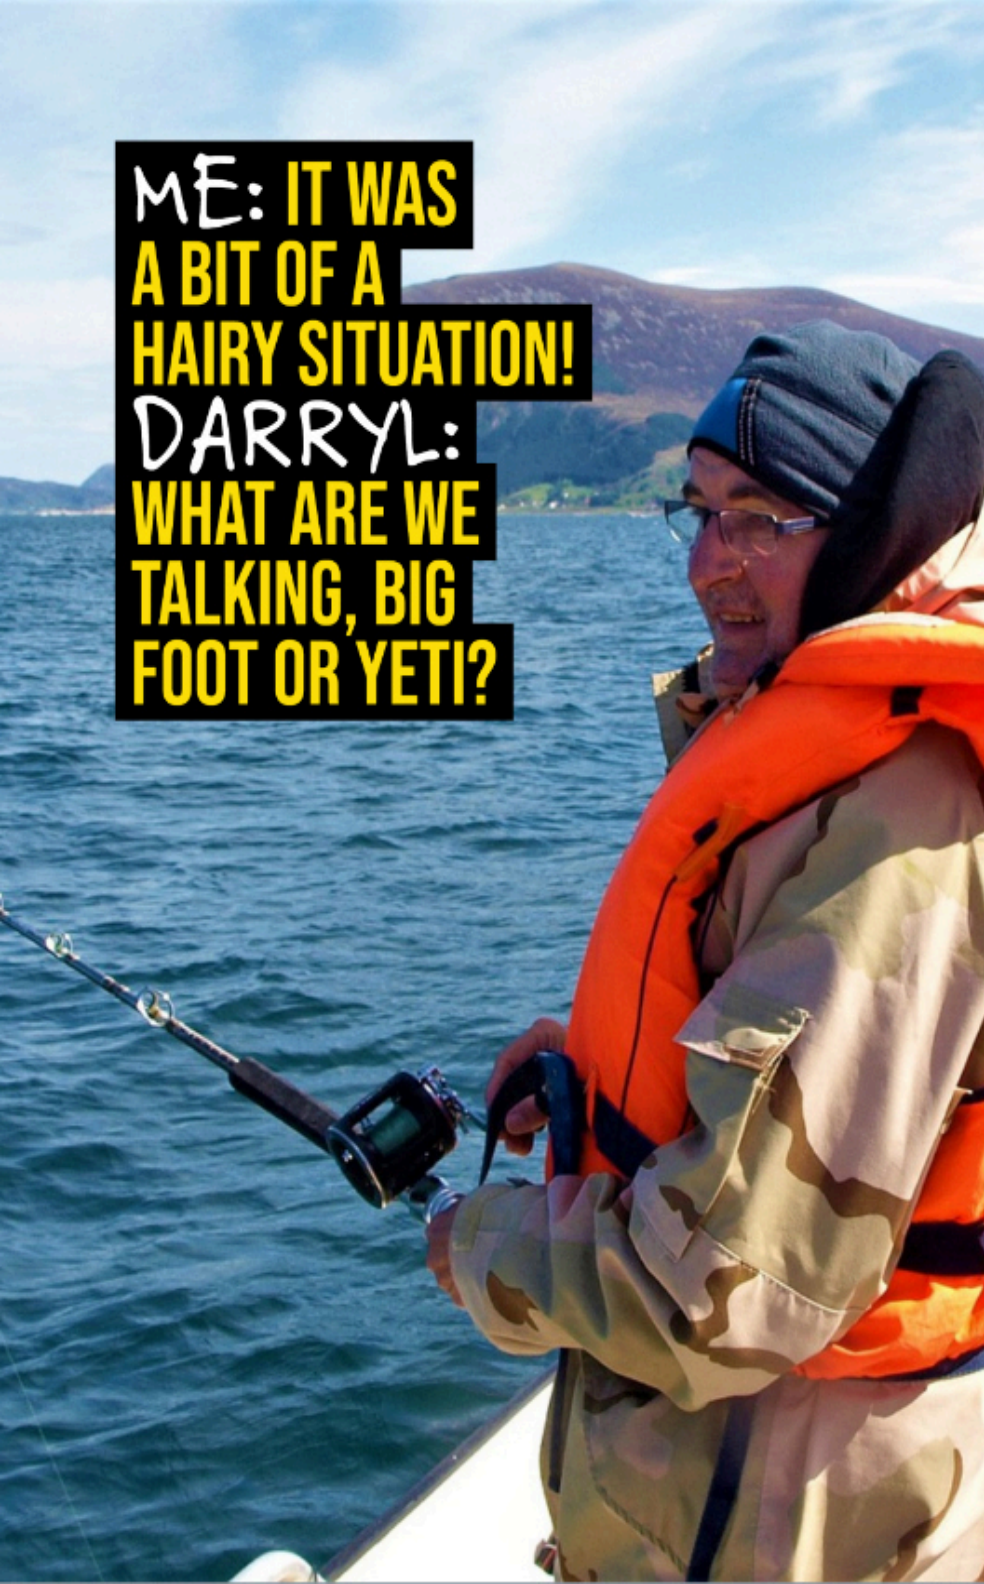

Mum could read auras and she said I could too. She put so much pressure on me that I started making shit up, and then mum confirmed my readings were correct. I just think things and they're right. I am chosen.

I'll take a line of rhino horn over a viagra any day.

I've got a fracture on my right menticulus.
I diagnosed myself.

I saw a book on evolution in a natural healing shop and thought, that's out of place.

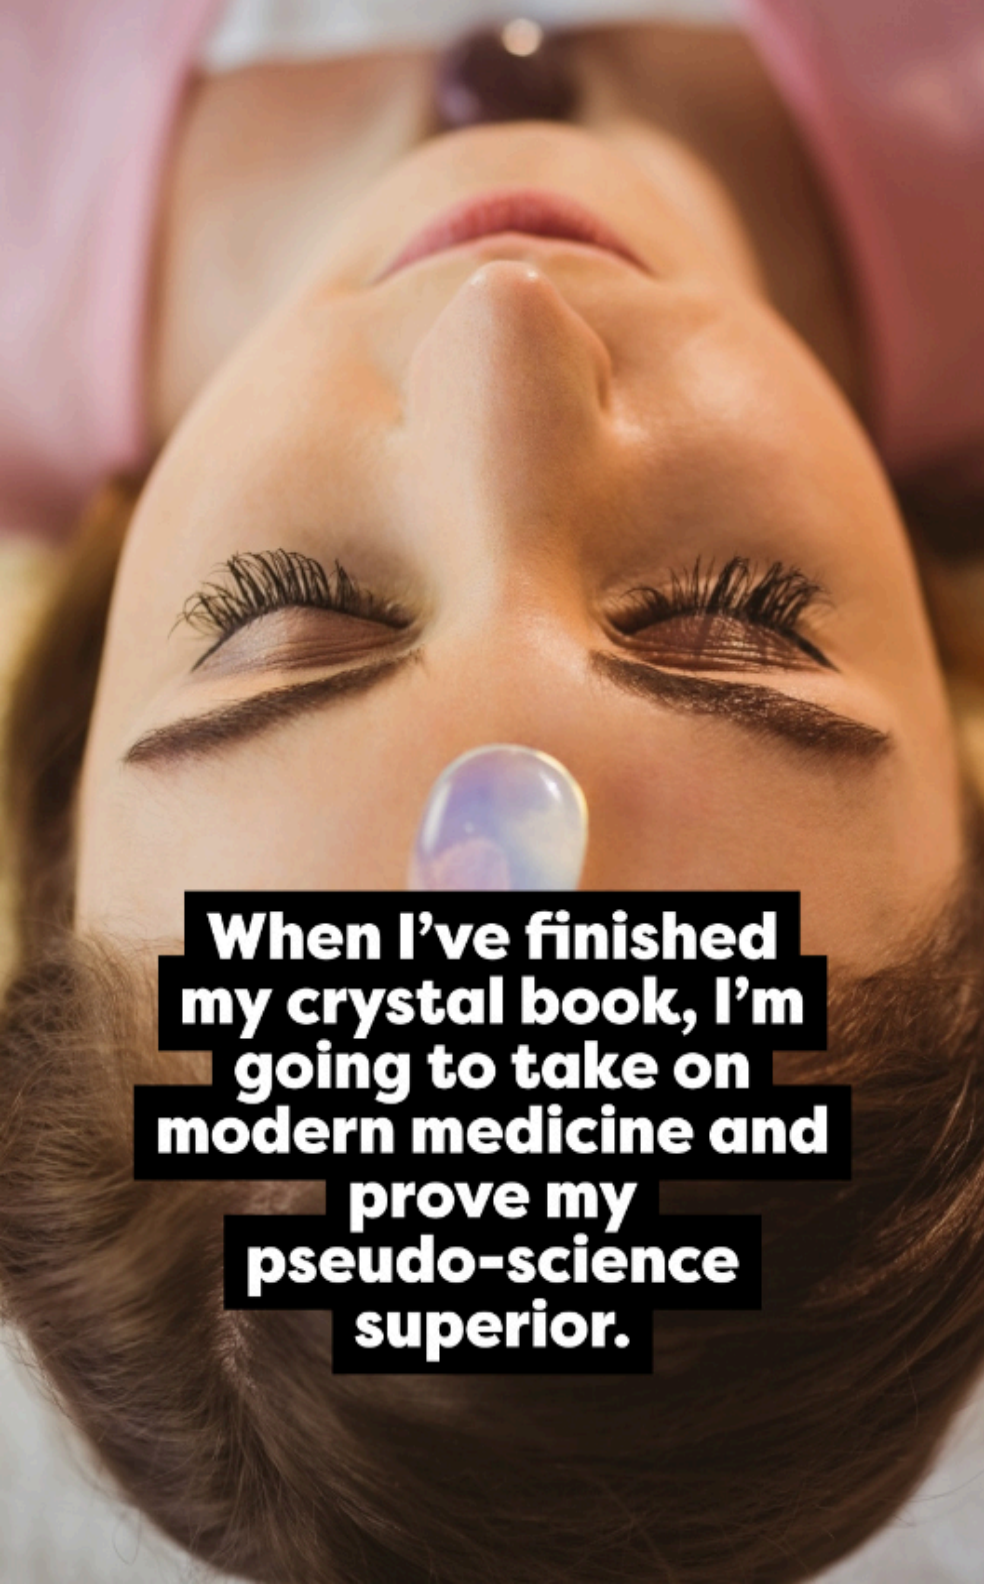

ME: IT WAS A BIT OF A HAIRY SITUATION!
DARRYL: WHAT ARE WE TALKING, BIG FOOT OR YETI?

Imagine if reincarnation was real, and we became powerful robots on a planet named Zeptor 5 and we knew everything.

People say ghosts aren't real. But have you ever had something brush past your leg and there was nobody around? Or the lights suddenly flicker, or you see something out of the corner of your eye. It's obvious that this all adds up to the fact there are dead people who are invisible who live in our houses.

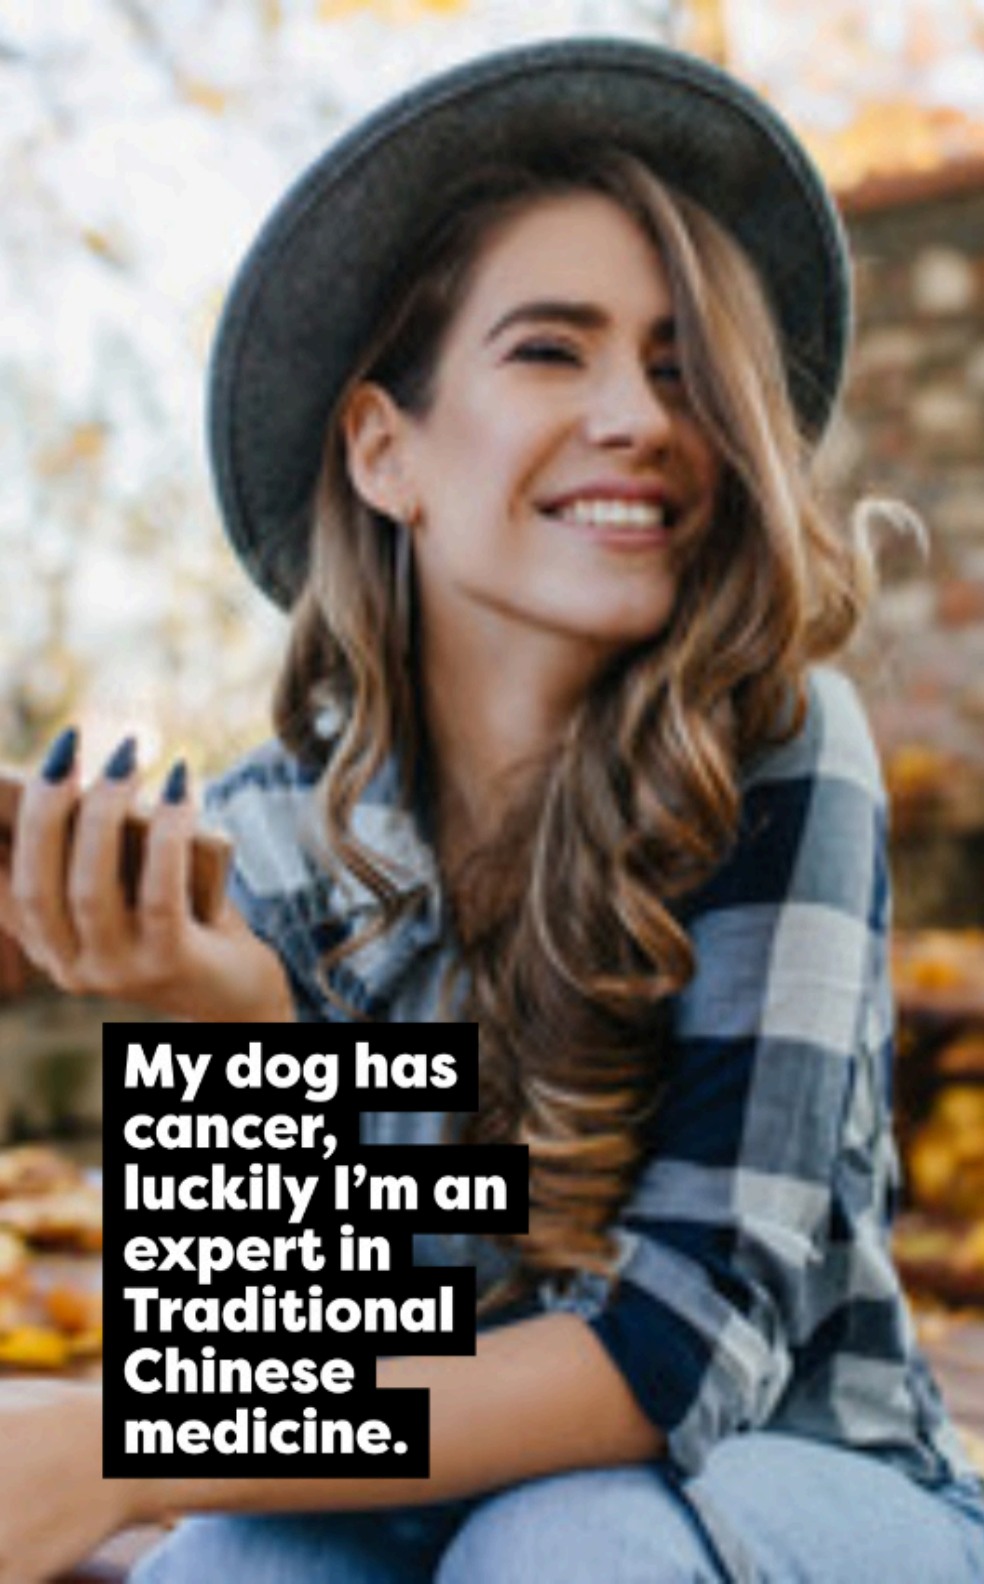

Vibrate at the highest frequency possible, I PERSONALLY VIBRATE AT OVER 15'000.

THE EYES ARE THE WINDOWS
TO THE BACK OF THE EYES

When I've finished my crystal book, I'm going to take on modern medicine and prove my pseudo-science superior.

David Copperfield is real. He can do things Jesus would only dream about.

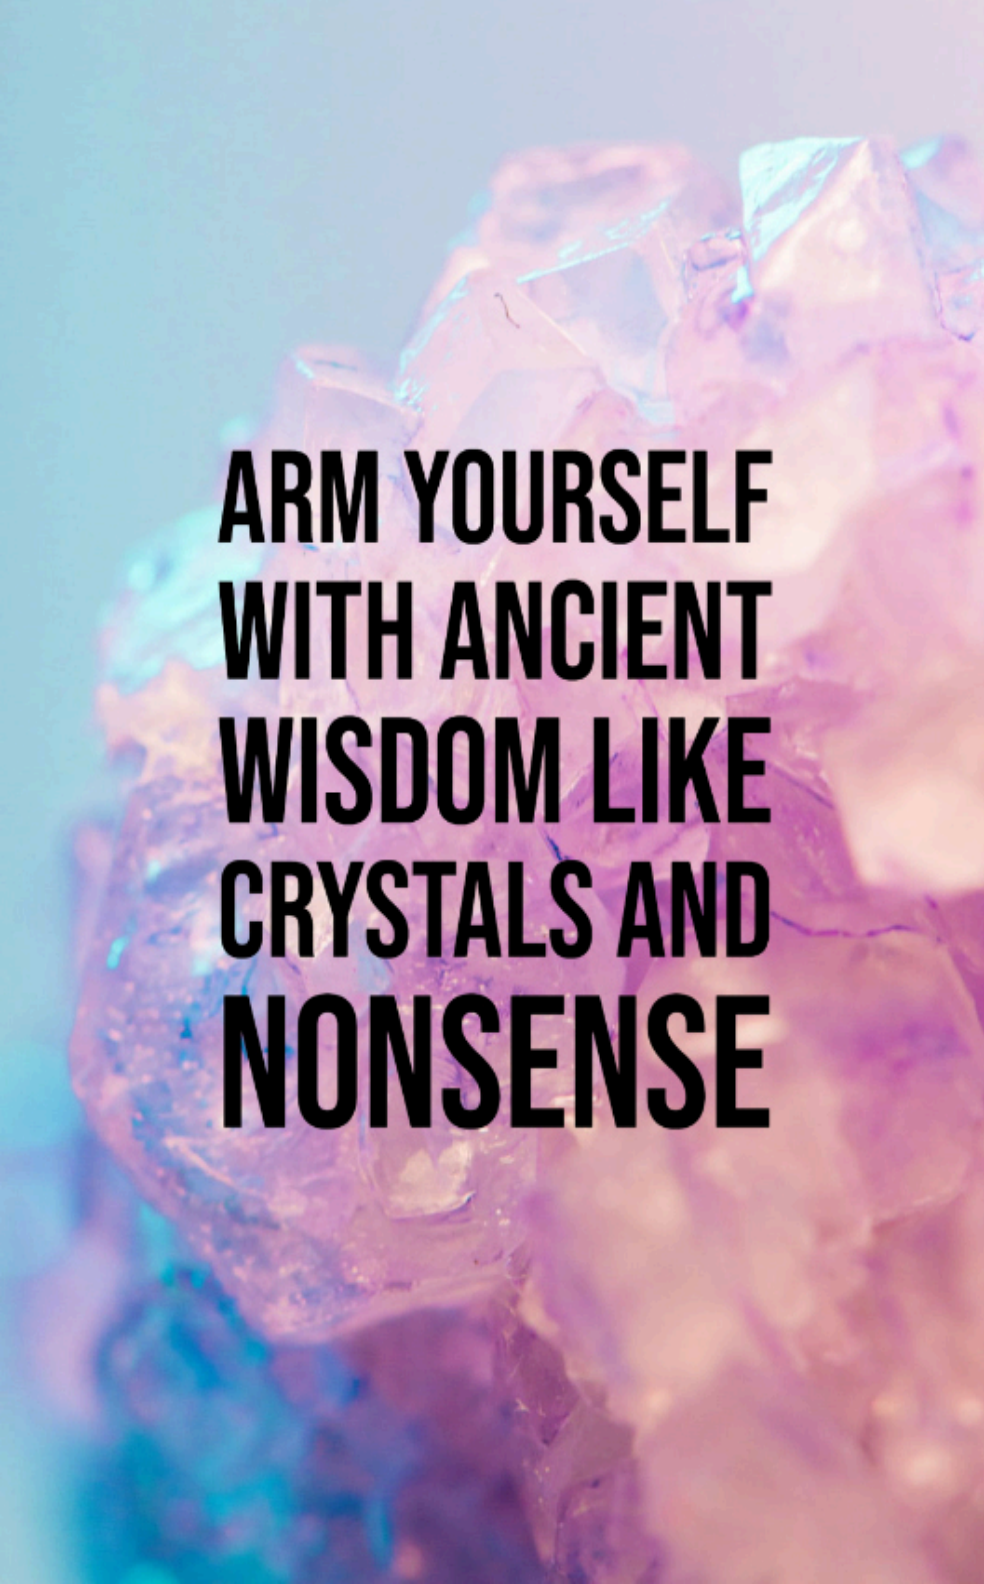

To love with all your heart and not be dashed by whim and whimsy. To have a long hot bath, soak and write sweet love in poetry to the divine soul, bow your head to the tree of sight and be one with the goddess.

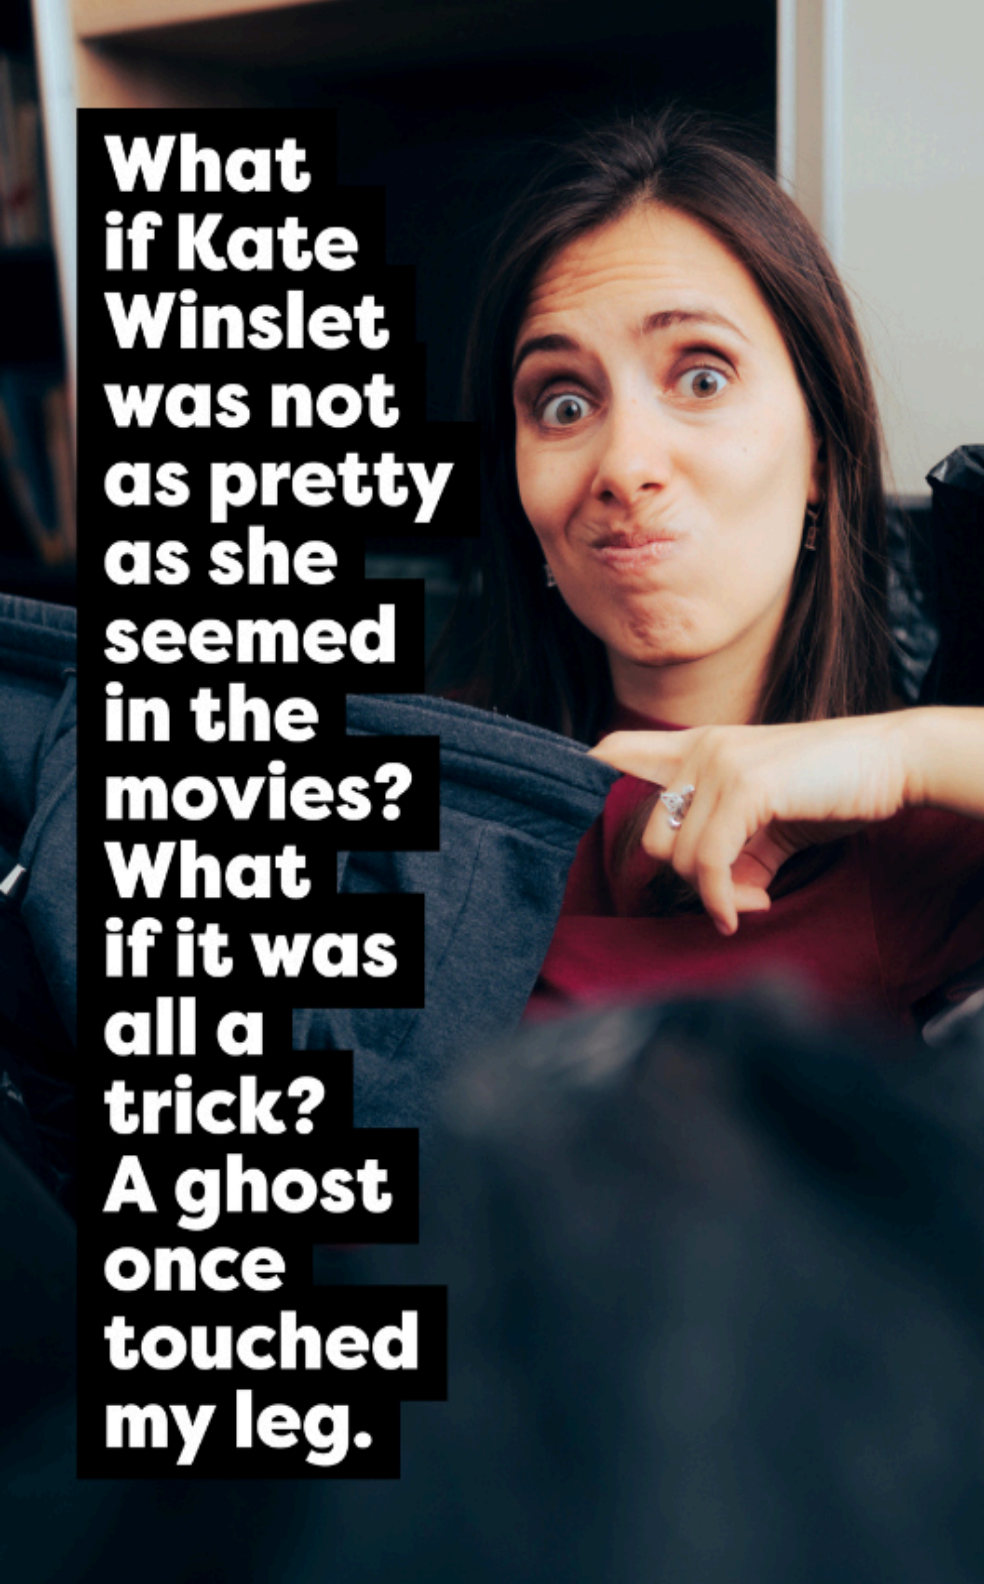

My dog has cancer, luckily I'm an expert in Traditional Chinese medicine.

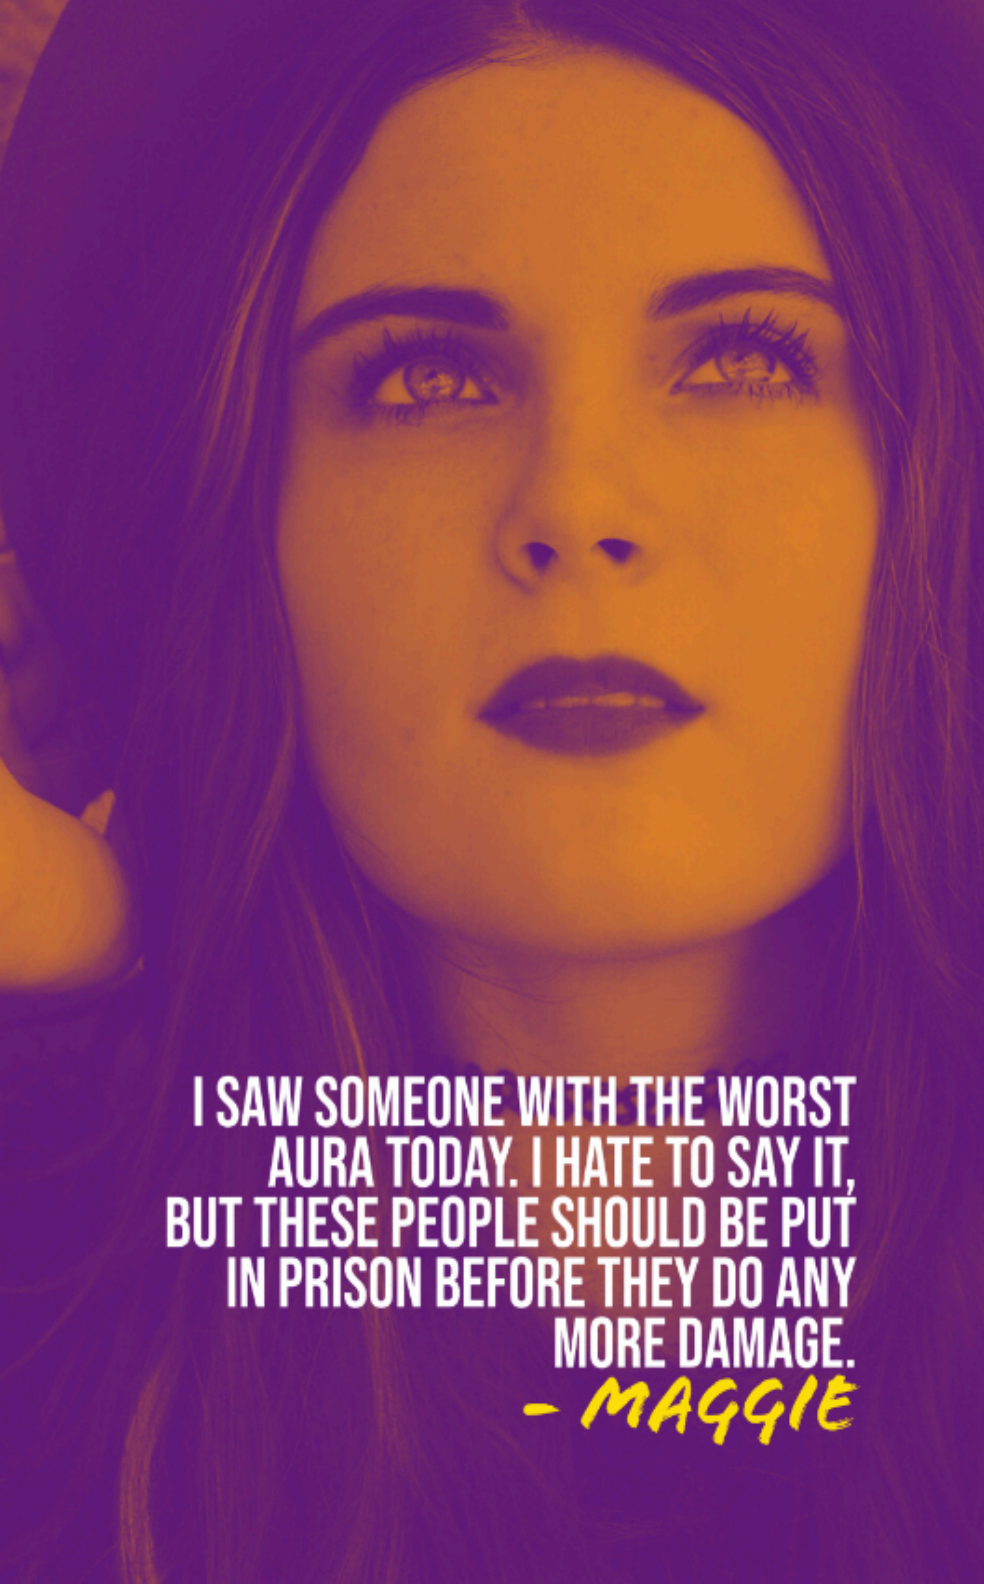

If only you could combine aromatherapy with multi-level marketing. That's something a smart girl like me could get behind.

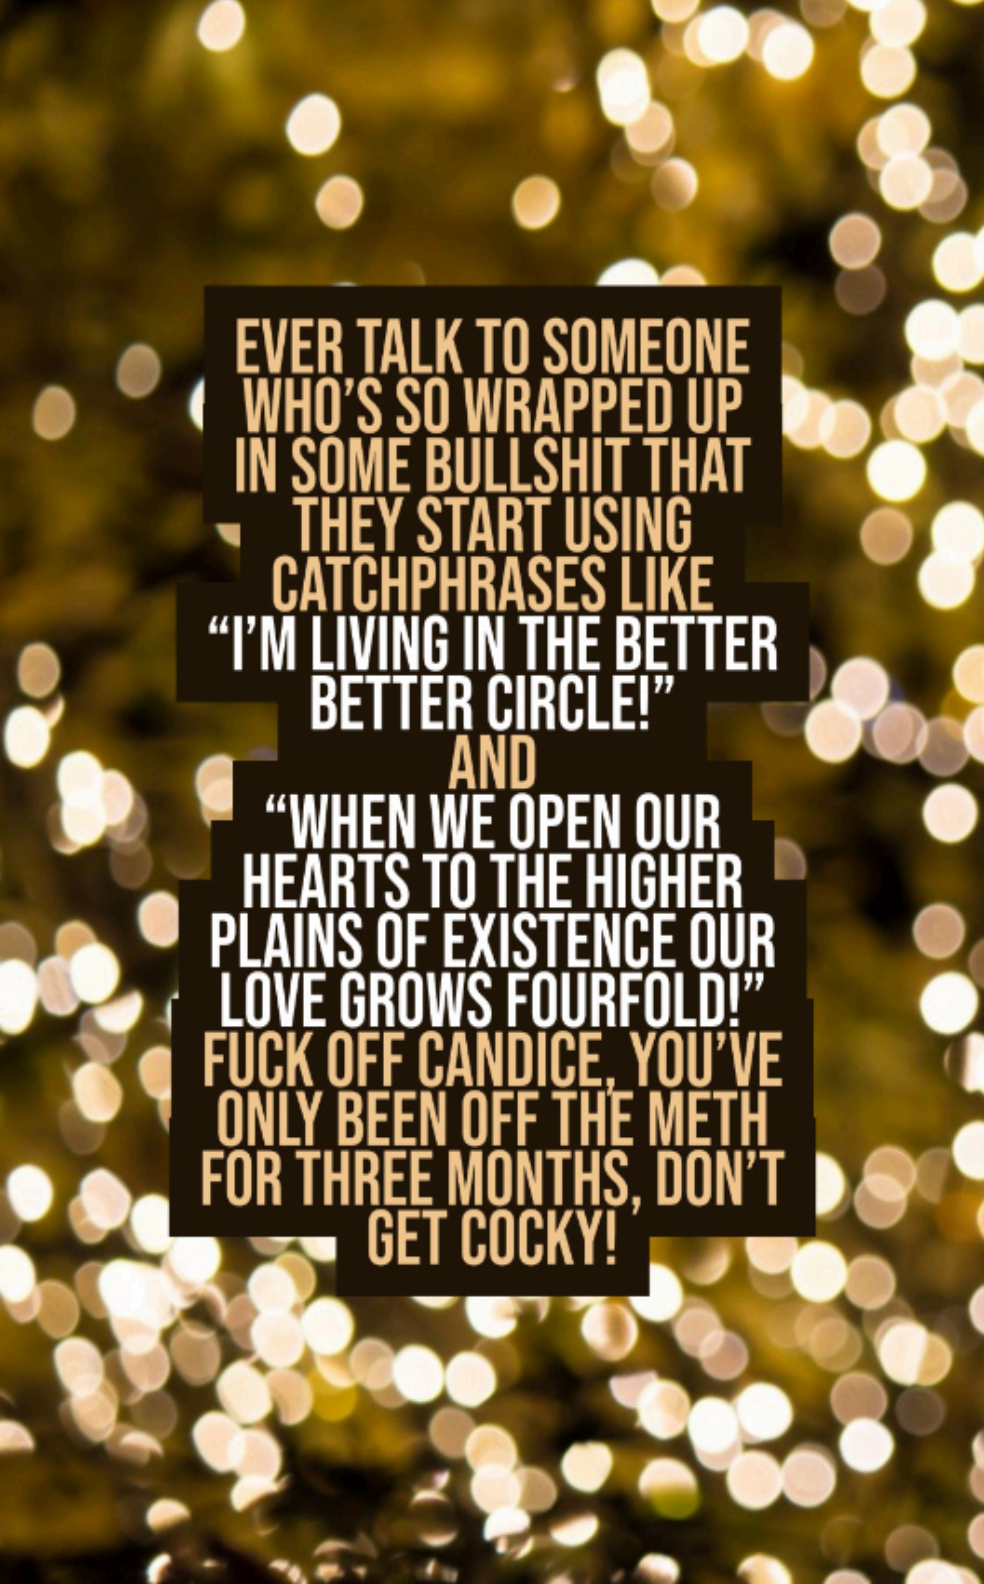

Life is a riddle, trapped in a mystery, buried in a box, next to a letter with a secret in it.

What if Kate Winslet was not as pretty as she seemed in the movies? What if it was all a trick? A ghost once touched my leg.

I SAW SOMEONE WITH THE WORST AURA TODAY. I HATE TO SAY IT, BUT THESE PEOPLE SHOULD BE PUT IN PRISON BEFORE THEY DO ANY MORE DAMAGE.
- MAGGIE

EVER TALK TO SOMEONE WHO'S SO WRAPPED UP IN SOME BULLSHIT THAT THEY START USING CATCHPHRASES LIKE "I'M LIVING IN THE BETTER BETTER CIRCLE!" AND "WHEN WE OPEN OUR HEARTS TO THE HIGHER PLAINS OF EXISTENCE OUR LOVE GROWS FOURFOLD!" FUCK OFF CANDICE, YOU'VE ONLY BEEN OFF THE METH FOR THREE MONTHS, DON'T GET COCKY!

“I don't believe in coincidence, I believe in conspiracy until proven otherwise.”

ME: FOR MY NEXT TRICK I'M GOING TO PULL A LIVE CHICKEN OUT OF DAVE SCHLAVINSKI'S ARSE. COME ON UP DAVE.

DAVE: HOW DO YOU KNOW MY NAME?

I no longer have the energy for meaningless friendships, forced interactions or unnecessary conversations.

There are no limits, you can fly if you truly believe it. Probably not as well as a bird because it takes a lot of practice. Dream to achieve anything. Kill people with your mind.

If and when I develop magical powers, I will use them to make a powerful crystal. There are always stories about how people find and use magic crystal powers. But there are very few stories about how these crystals are created.

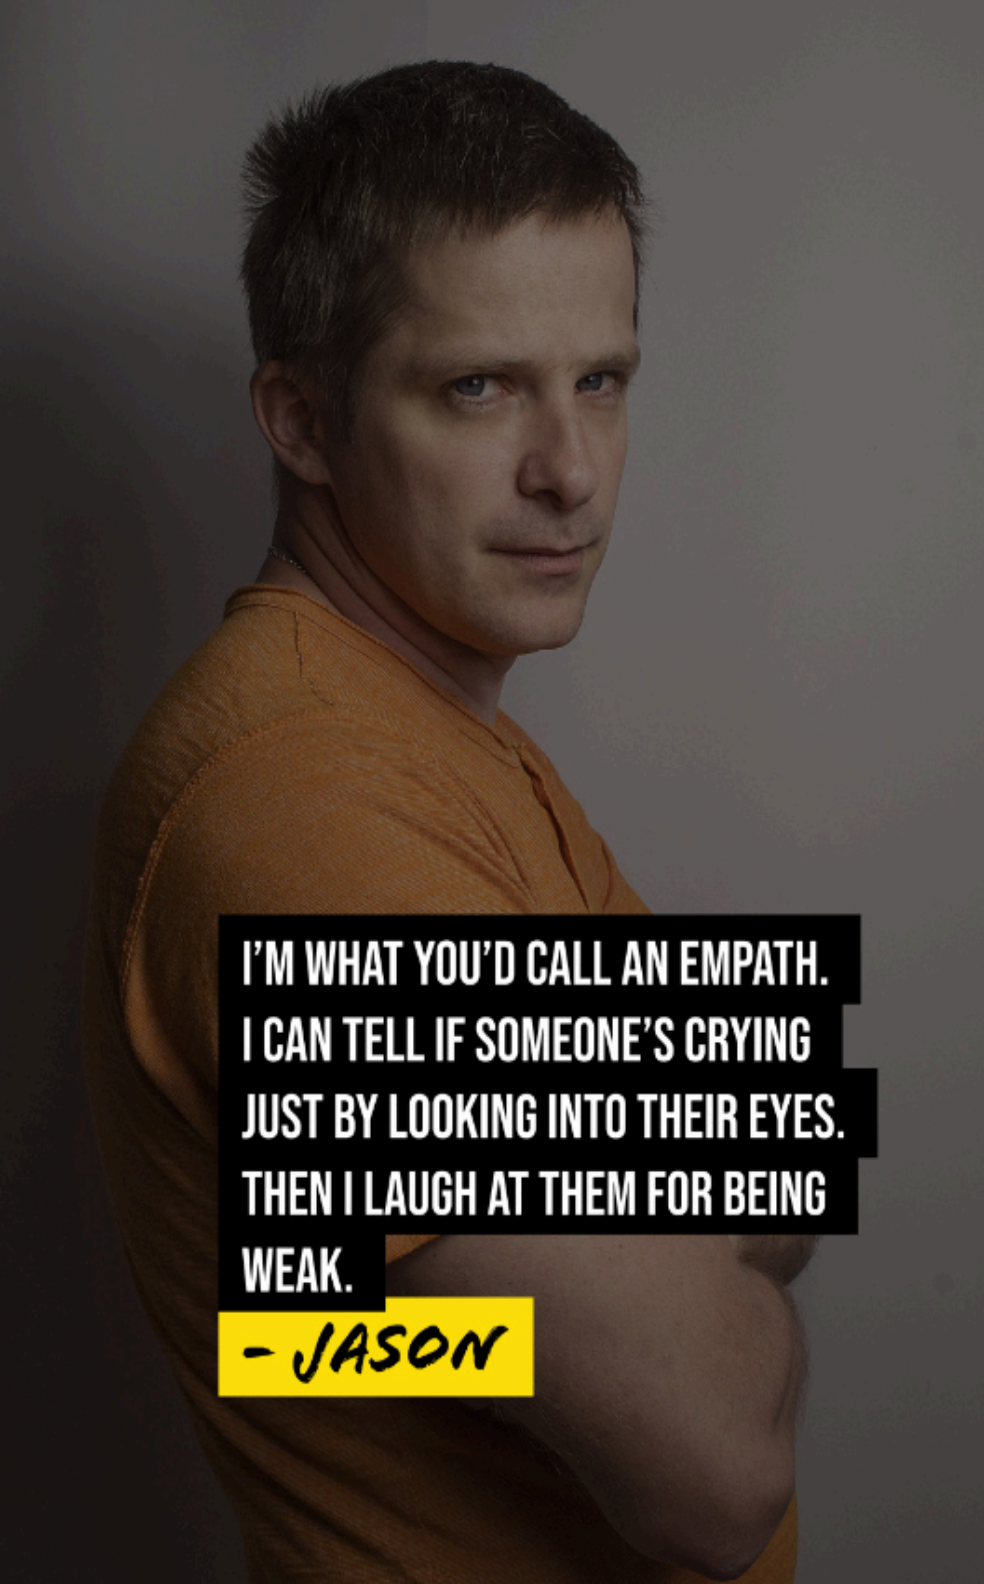

Does anyone know where to buy books about the truth of everything? Like floating pyramids and shit.

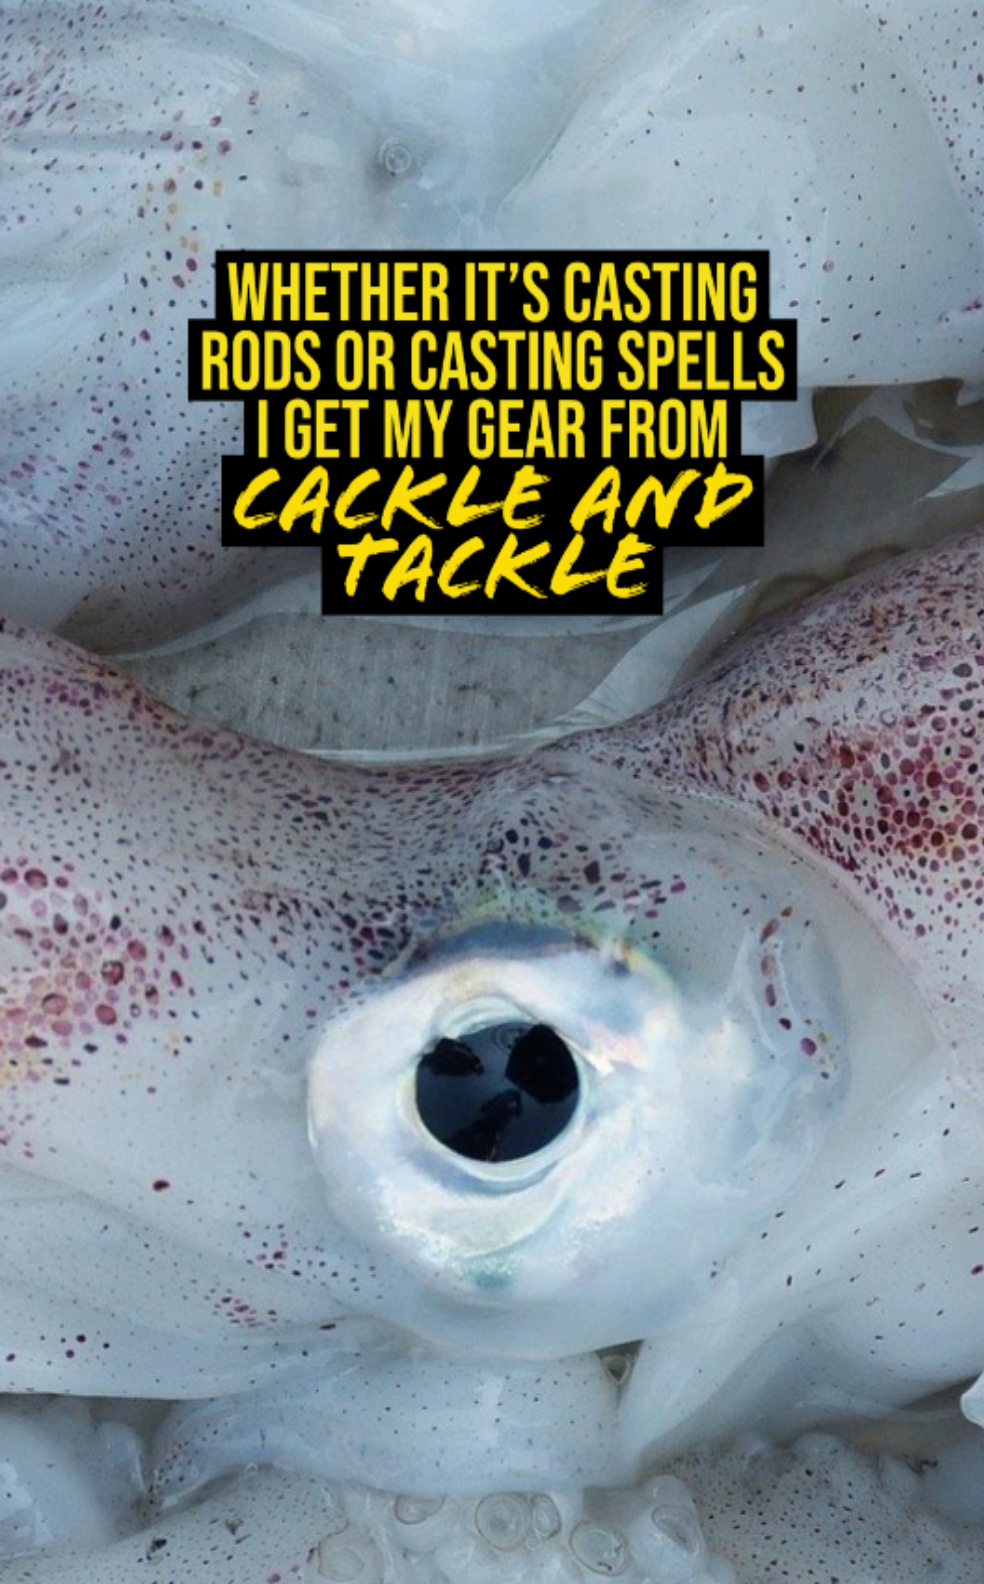

What if you were the seventh son of the seventh son? Would you automatically have magical powers or would you have to earn them?

THINKING ABOUT BECOMING AN EXPERT ON GHOSTS! PEOPLE NEED TO KNOW ABOUT MY SECRET INNER-KNOWLEDGE THAT COMES TO ME OFF THE TOP OF MY HEAD LIKE IT'S MAKE-BELIEVE BUT IT'S TRUE BECAUSE IT'S MY DESTINY!

Ever have one of those 4th-dimensional dreams. What a blowout. I thought people were just lying through their teeth until I saw Jesus and Muhammad playing ping-pong in their undies.

With the help of someone with proper qualifications, who was a spiritual leader and drove his own car. I was shown one of my past lives. I was this promiscuous Nun who swore like a trooper, and I knew he was right because she had the same initials and we both like chocolate pudding. #inspirational WARNING! I purchased some cheap crystals in town yesterday and they are sending out vibrational waves between 3000 and 4000 hertz. Good quartz should be connecting with your Gamma brain waves at 5000 to 6000 hertz. REMEMBER: You get what you pay for! (Remember: B.Q.C) Buy Quality Crystals if you expect this stuff to work! Thanks, Everybody.

I FELT A HAND ON MY SHOULDER JUST THEN. SOME WOULD SAY I'M JUST IMAGINING THINGS. BUT I KNOW IT WAS A GHOST OF THIS GUY WHO USED TO LIVE IN MY HOUSE. I ASKED HIM NICELY TO LEAVE. I SAID, "GO TOWARDS THE LIGHT". HE IS A TROUBLED SOUL, I KNOW THIS AND WANT YOU TO UNDERSTAND MY KNOWLEDGE OF THE AFTERLIFE. DOES ANYONE KNOW THE SYMBOL FOR DEATH?

THIS IS AN OUTRAGE. THE COUNTRY'S GOING TO SHIT. I WENT INTO TARGET AND GRABBED A CATALOGUE AND WHAT DID I FIND ON THE FRONT, "HAPPIER HOLIDAYS." IT SHOULD SAY, " MERRIER CHRISTMAS" PC CULTURE HAS GONE TOO FAR.

DO PEOPLE WHO ATTEND NATURAL HEALING CONFERENCES REALLY USE HORSEHAIR TAMPONS, OR IS THAT JUST A STORY MADE UP BY BIG SCIENCE?

I don’t trust smart people. They think their nonsense is superior to mine.

According to a new study I whipped up on my Chromebook. You can tell a person's love-making ability by the colour of their eyes. You can also tell if they have hepatitis. It's all in my research, I did last night after consulting my tarot.

I don't trust wisdom unless it's ancient wisdom from before. When people died from diarrhea and the common cold.

I'm basing how good my day is going to be on my horoscope for today, come in spinner.

Intelligent people who are into science and math aren't in touch with their spiritual emotions. If someone hurts them and they feel bad, they don't automatically label that other person as evil. What's up with that?

Alternative facts are real. I know because my heart is true. And the evil one will not reign over my spirit.

We stand on the shoulders of giants, those who were able to read peoples future for the first time and realized people believed it. Those who cured cancer with carrot smoothies. Science is holding us back from the hidden truth of unlimited possibilities and the knowledge of real everyday people with faith in their own spiritual superiority and without fancy book learning who cure cancer with carrot smoothies.

My life was a struggle, I was a mess. Someone told me I should learn more about positive psychology, I asked them whether they'd seen it in a dream, and they said that really smart people worked out what makes people happy. I said I don't trust smart people, they are too smart, they could trick me. So I consulted a Tarot reader. My life is still a mess, but now I also know Tarot, and this morning I told my neighbour she would leave her husband for another man.

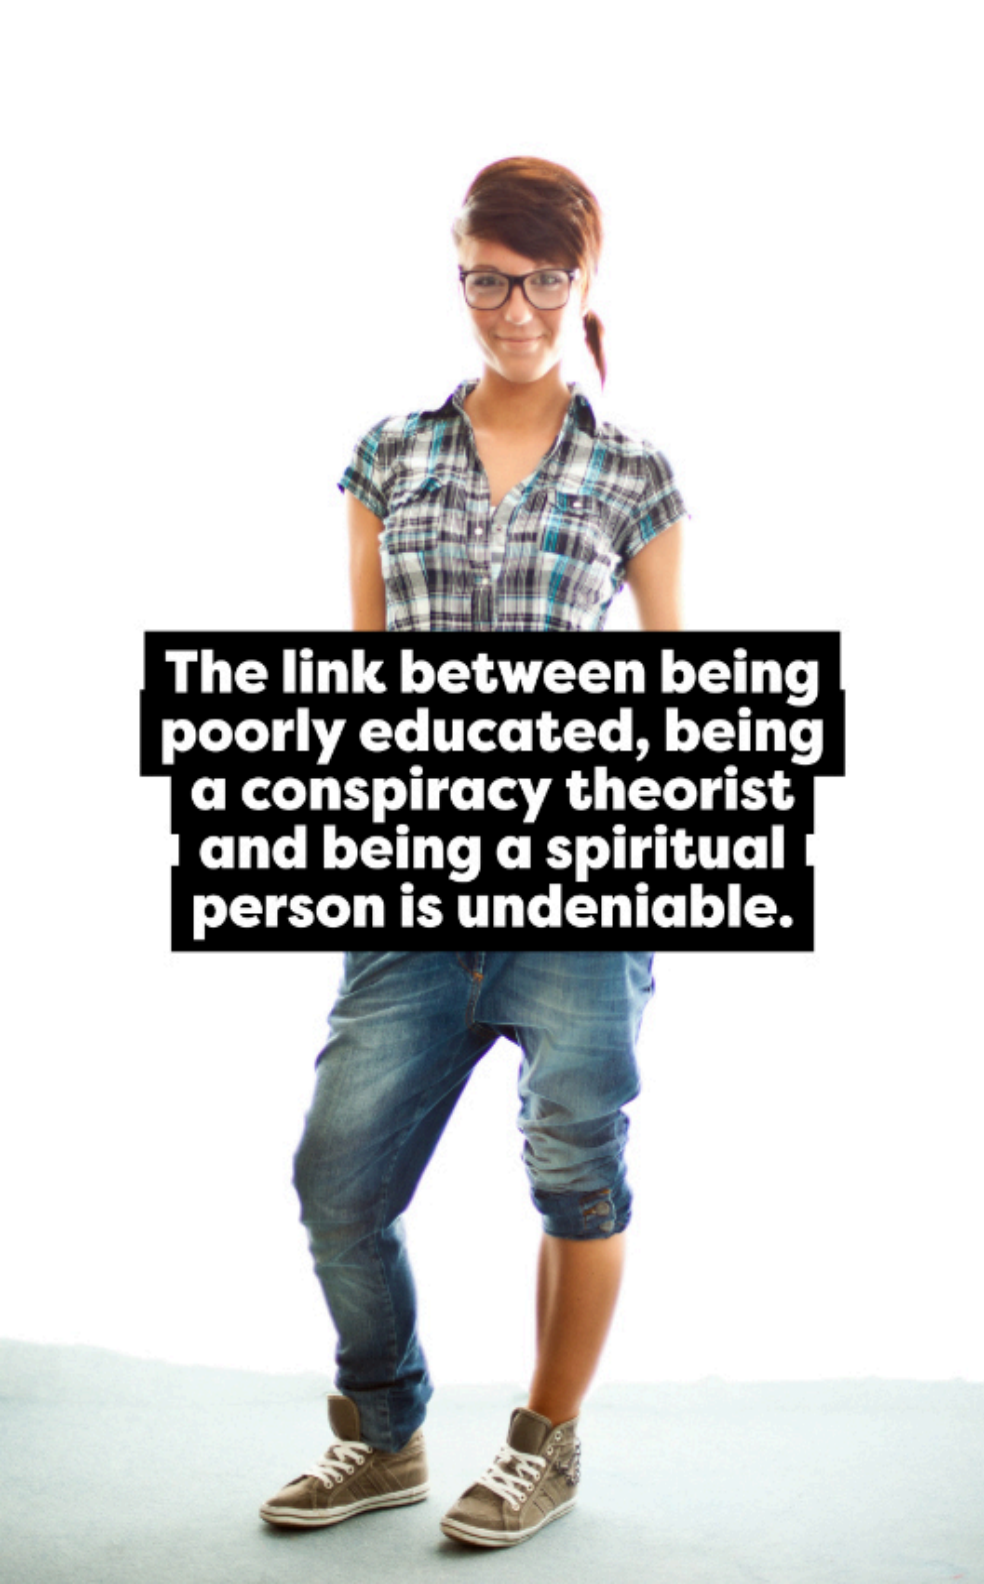

A DICE IS ACTUALLY

I refuse to believe I don't have some sort of untapped magical powers.

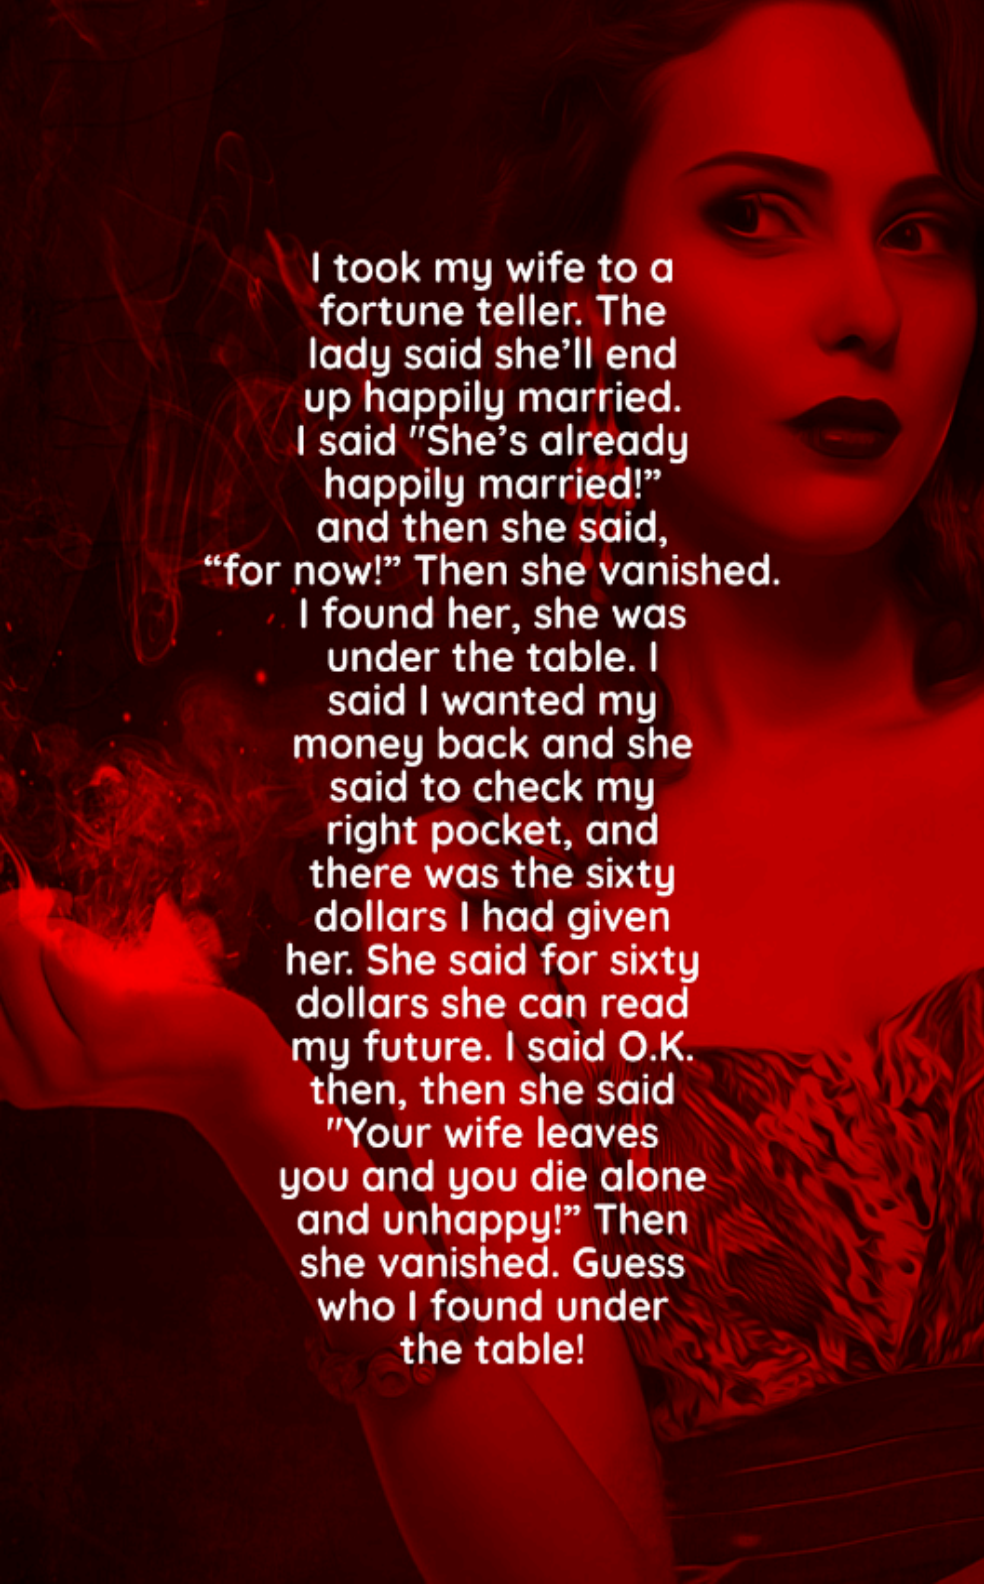

People give witchcraft a bad name. But what's better than a heap of women sitting around having a cackle and brewing up some potions? They don't have to be evil potions.

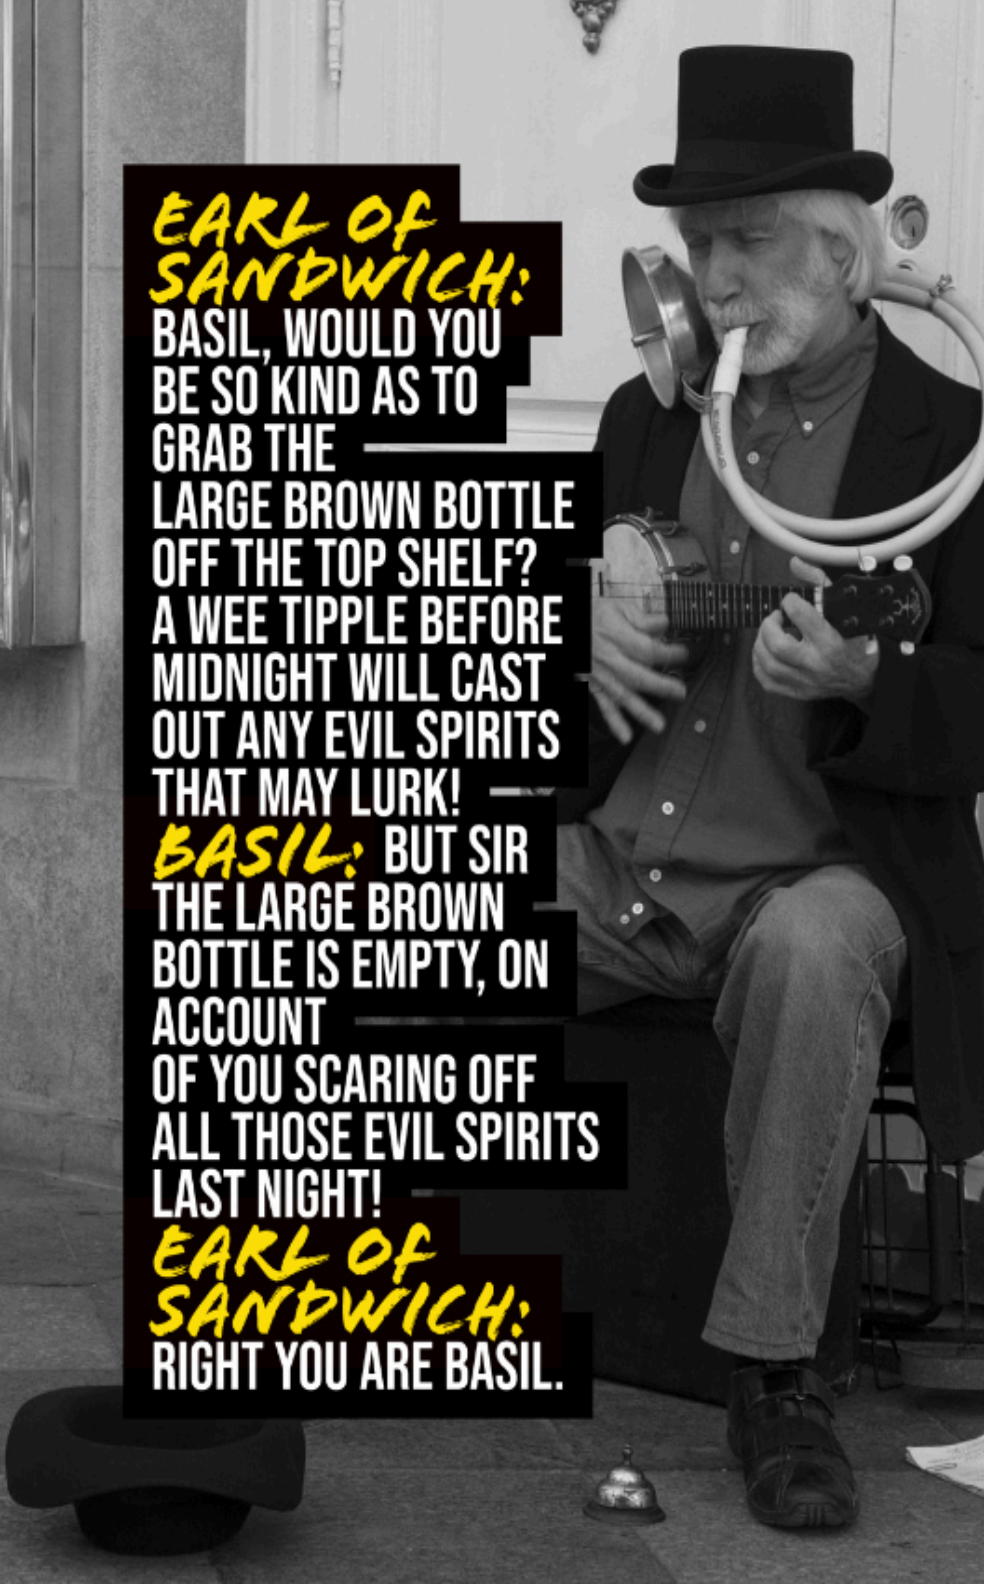

If what I'm reading doesn't have a touch of meta-psychics weaved into it. I just don't believe it. Magic is real. In my past life, I was a samurai.

The Masons are losing members fast. Maybe they should reinstate blood sacrifice.

The link between being poorly educated, being a conspiracy theorist and being a spiritual person is undeniable.

DO YOU EVER LOOK AT SOMEONE'S AURA AND THINK, THAT PERSON'S KILLED BEFORE?
- LILY

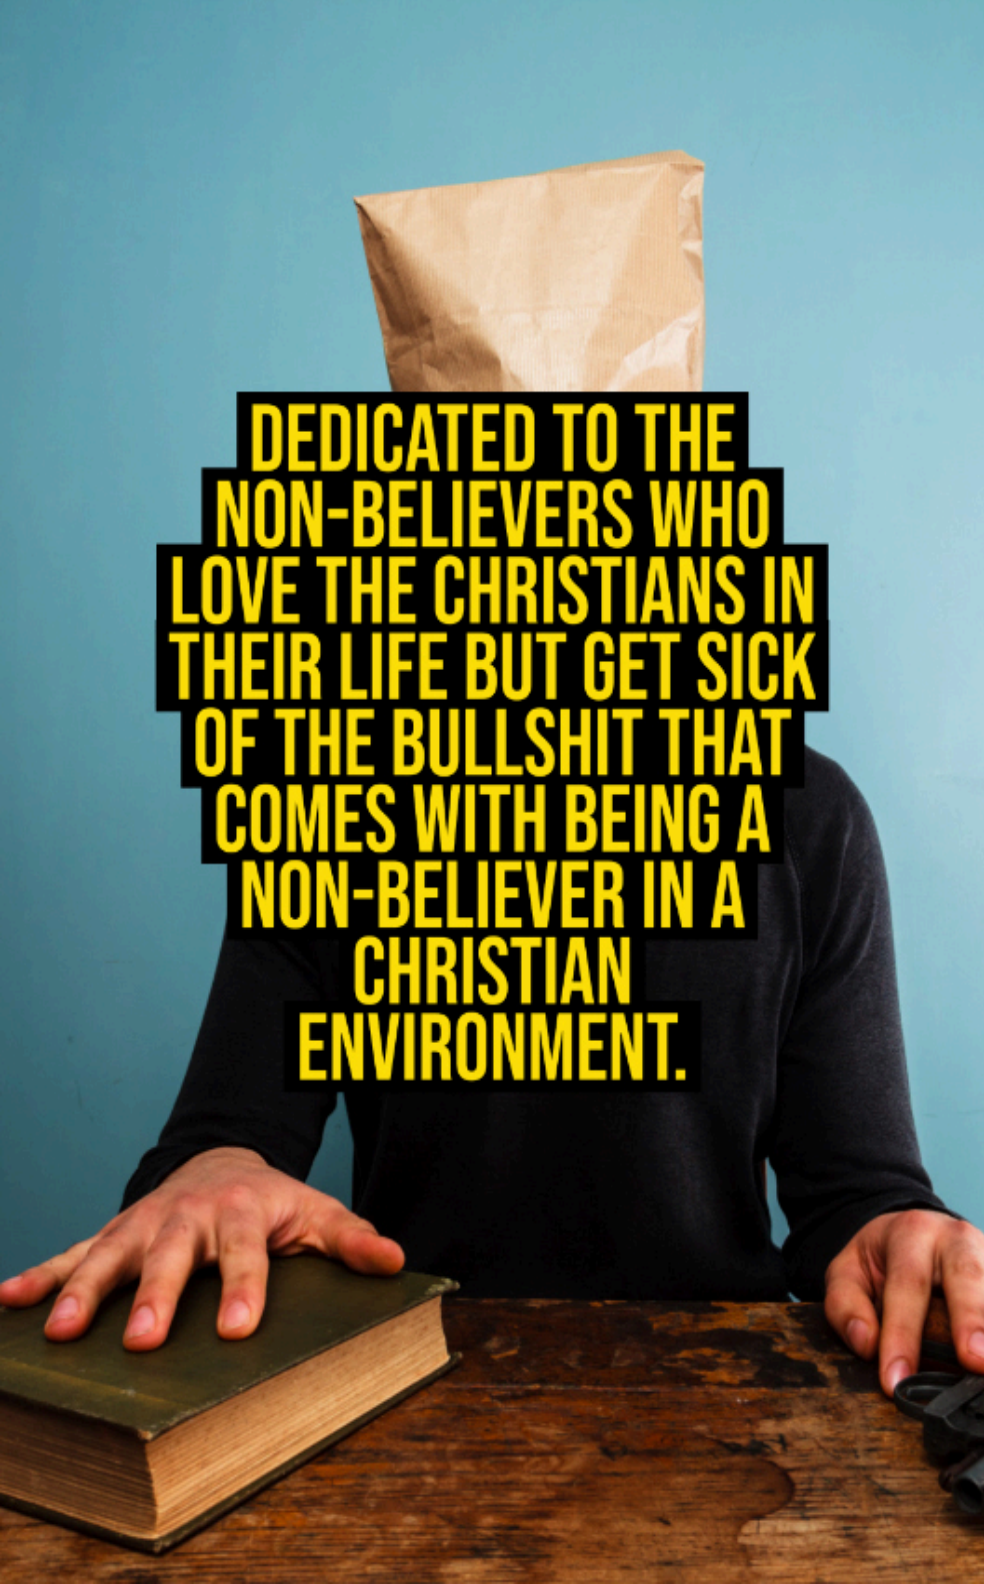

I took my wife to a fortune teller. The lady said she'll end up happily married. I said "She's already happily married!" and then she said, "for now!" Then she vanished. I found her, she was under the table. I said I wanted my money back and she said to check my right pocket, and there was the sixty dollars I had given her. She said for sixty dollars she can read my future. I said O.K. then, then she said "Your wife leaves you and you die alone and unhappy!" Then she vanished. Guess who I found under the table!

EARL OF SANDWICH:

I'm Christian, I'm in bondage.
Sorry just to be clear, my name is Christian and I'm into bondage.

Dinosaurs aren't real, or Jesus would have mentioned them in his speech.

I put my hand in the air when singing at church to prove I'm moved by the spirit.

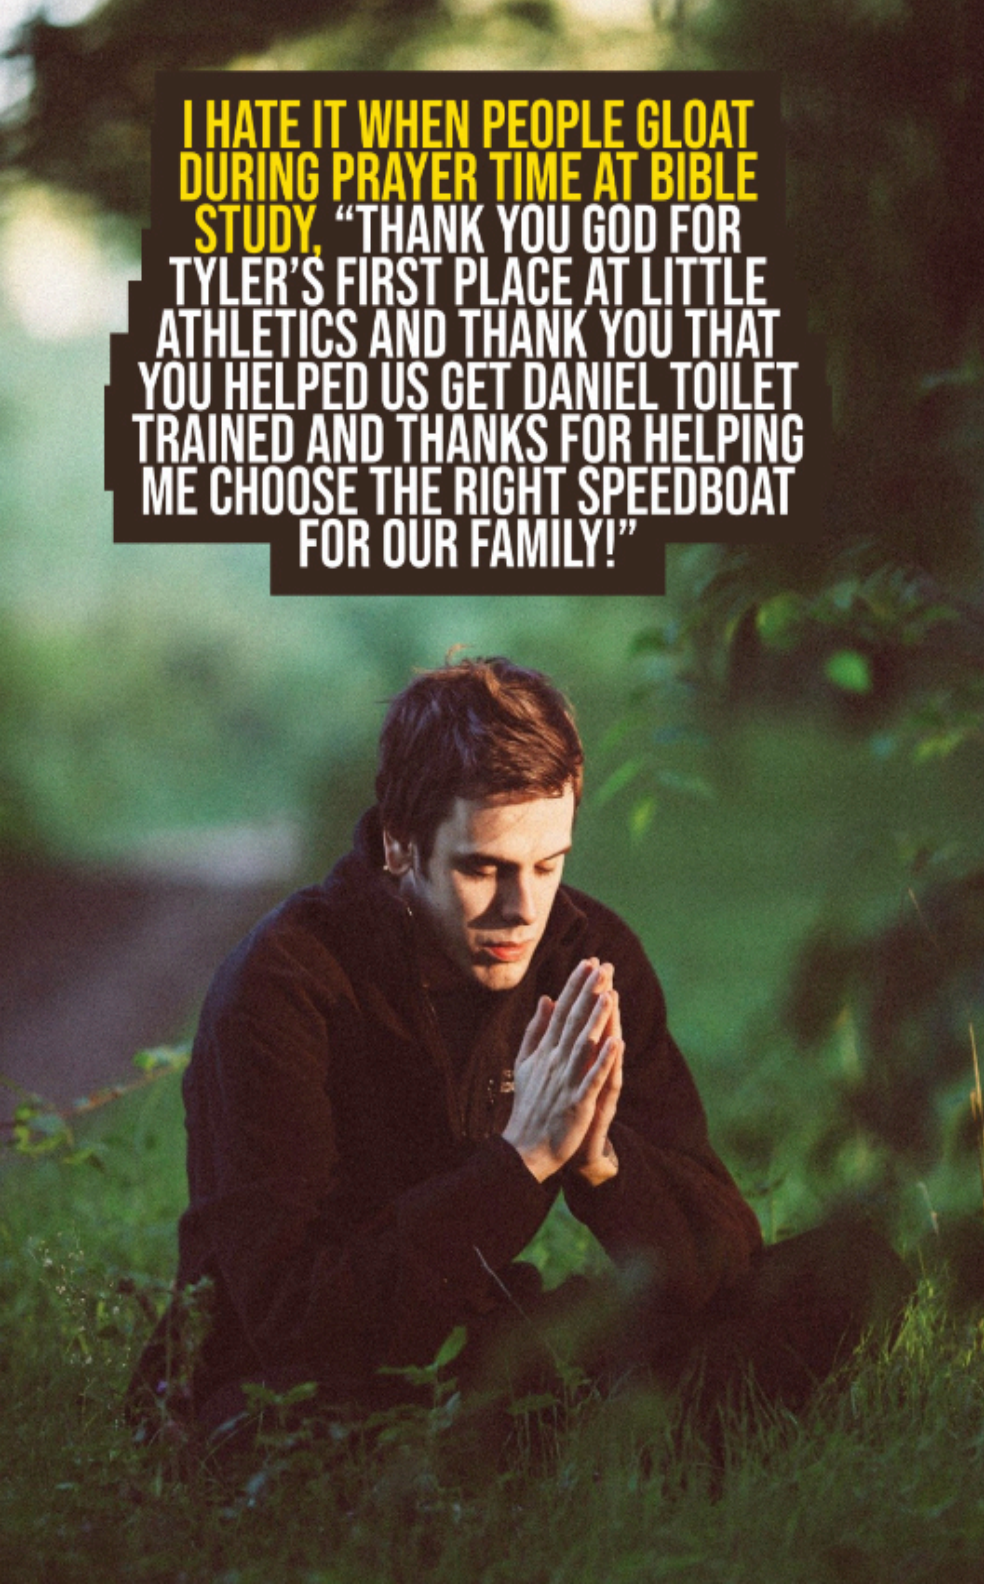

I don't need cocaine, now I have Jesus. I also don't need my son in my face crying about me being high on cocaine his entire childhood. I'm a Christian, all that's wiped clean. I'm born anew in christ but try telling that little motherfucker.

My pastor said Christians shouldn't try to change the world. But he also thinks our country needs Christian leadership. I think that's a bad combo.

I think the Amish were the most honest about their beliefs. They rejected science totally. They didn't take advantage of every scientific advancement while pretending they knew better than those scientists in areas of science that brought the Bible's infallibility into question.

WHEN YOU'RE DEEP IN THE SPIRIT AND GOD TELLS YOU THAT HE DOESN'T LIKE YOUR HAIR!

My wife is a Christian, so I'm hoping she gets a plus one through the pearly gates.

I don't care about nature or the environment because the real world is the one to come.

My pastor keeps banging on about gays. I only know two people in the church that would be struggling with such an issue. Maybe a bit more preaching on sex before marriage. There are at least five frolickers in the flock.

A good Christian is a fantastic human being, but they are rare as hen's teeth and are never the ones who take everything in the bible at face value.

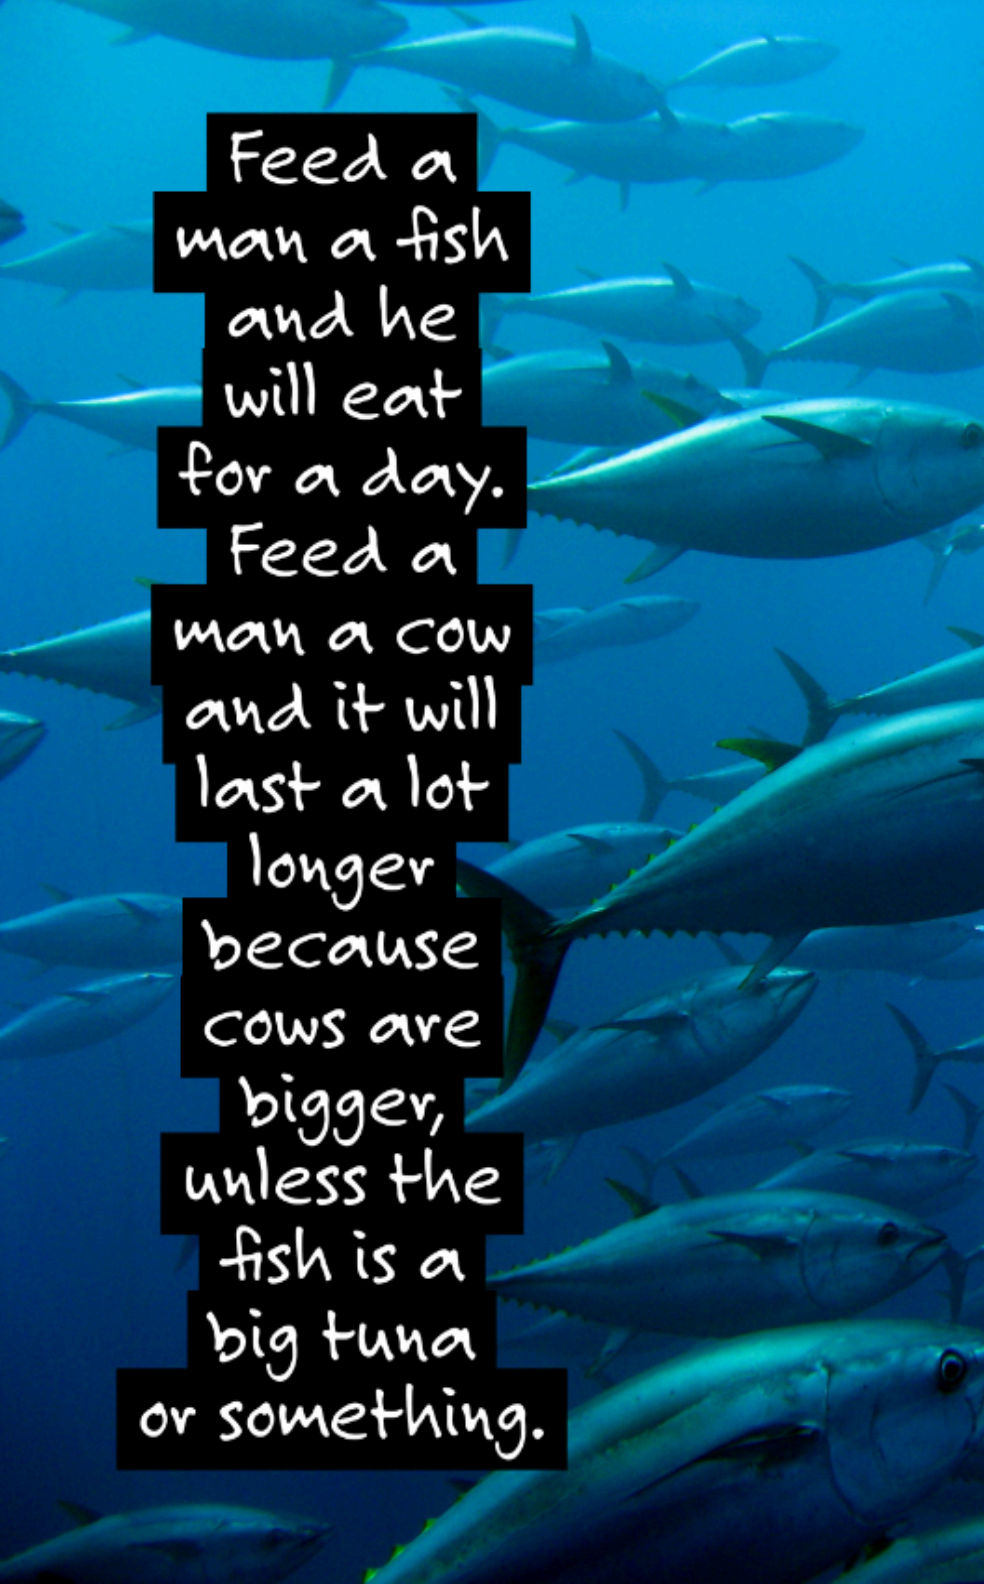

Jesus is the everyman.
He's whatever the church needs him to be at the time.

My pastor doesn't give me any good jobs at church because I don't bang on about Jesus enough.

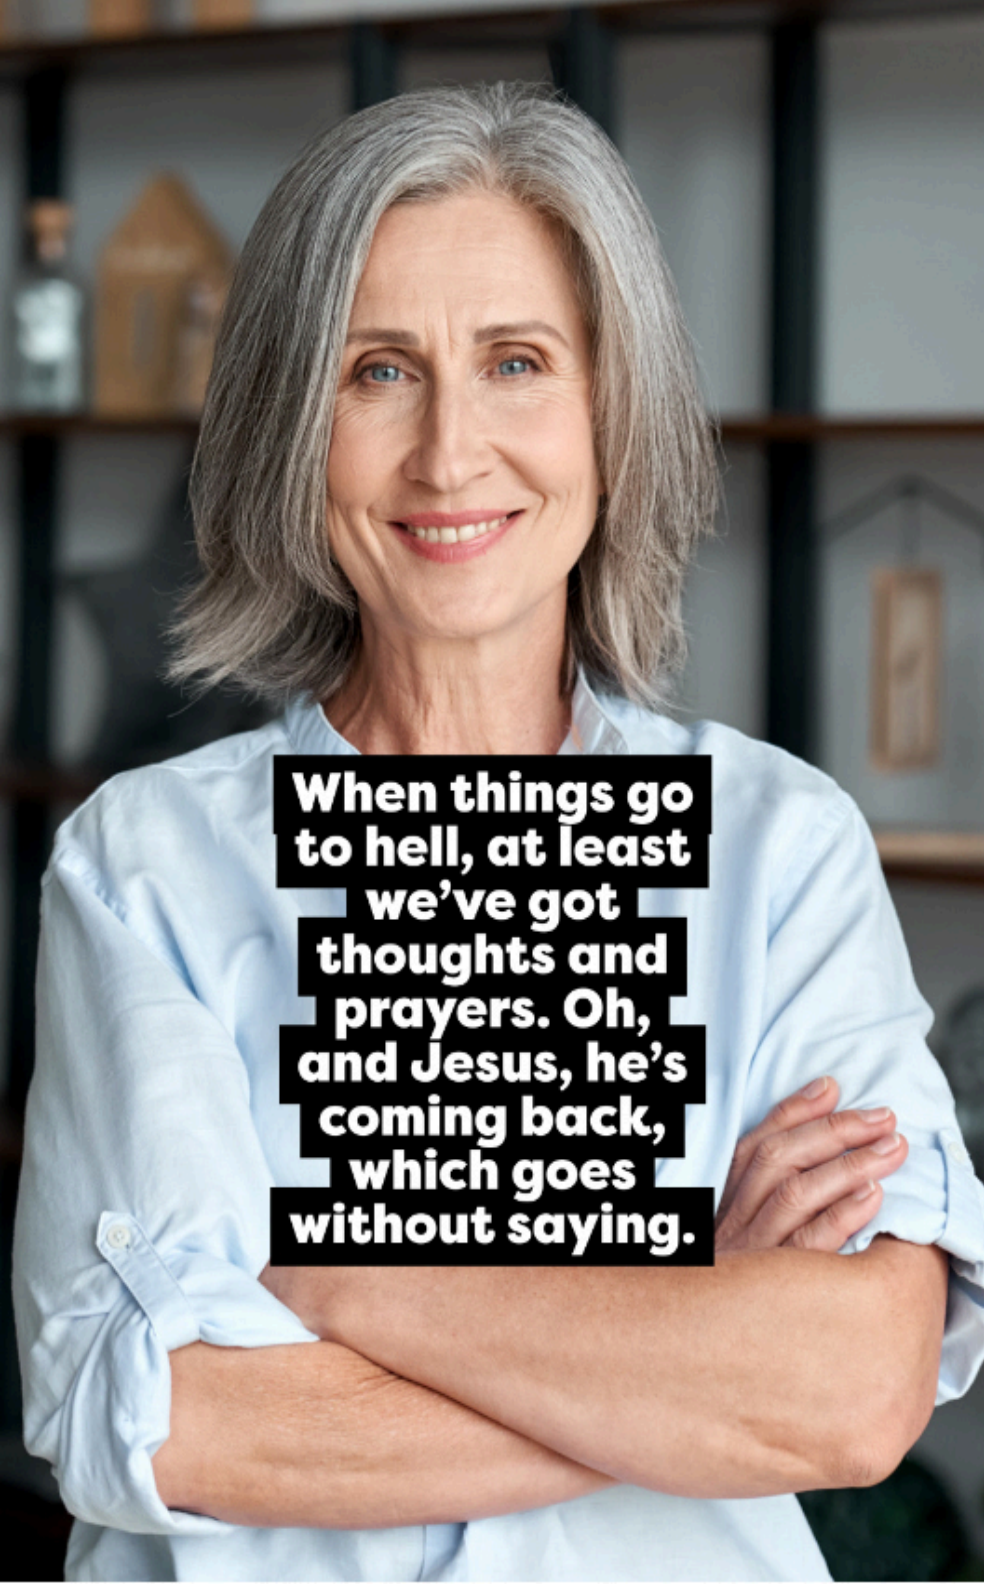

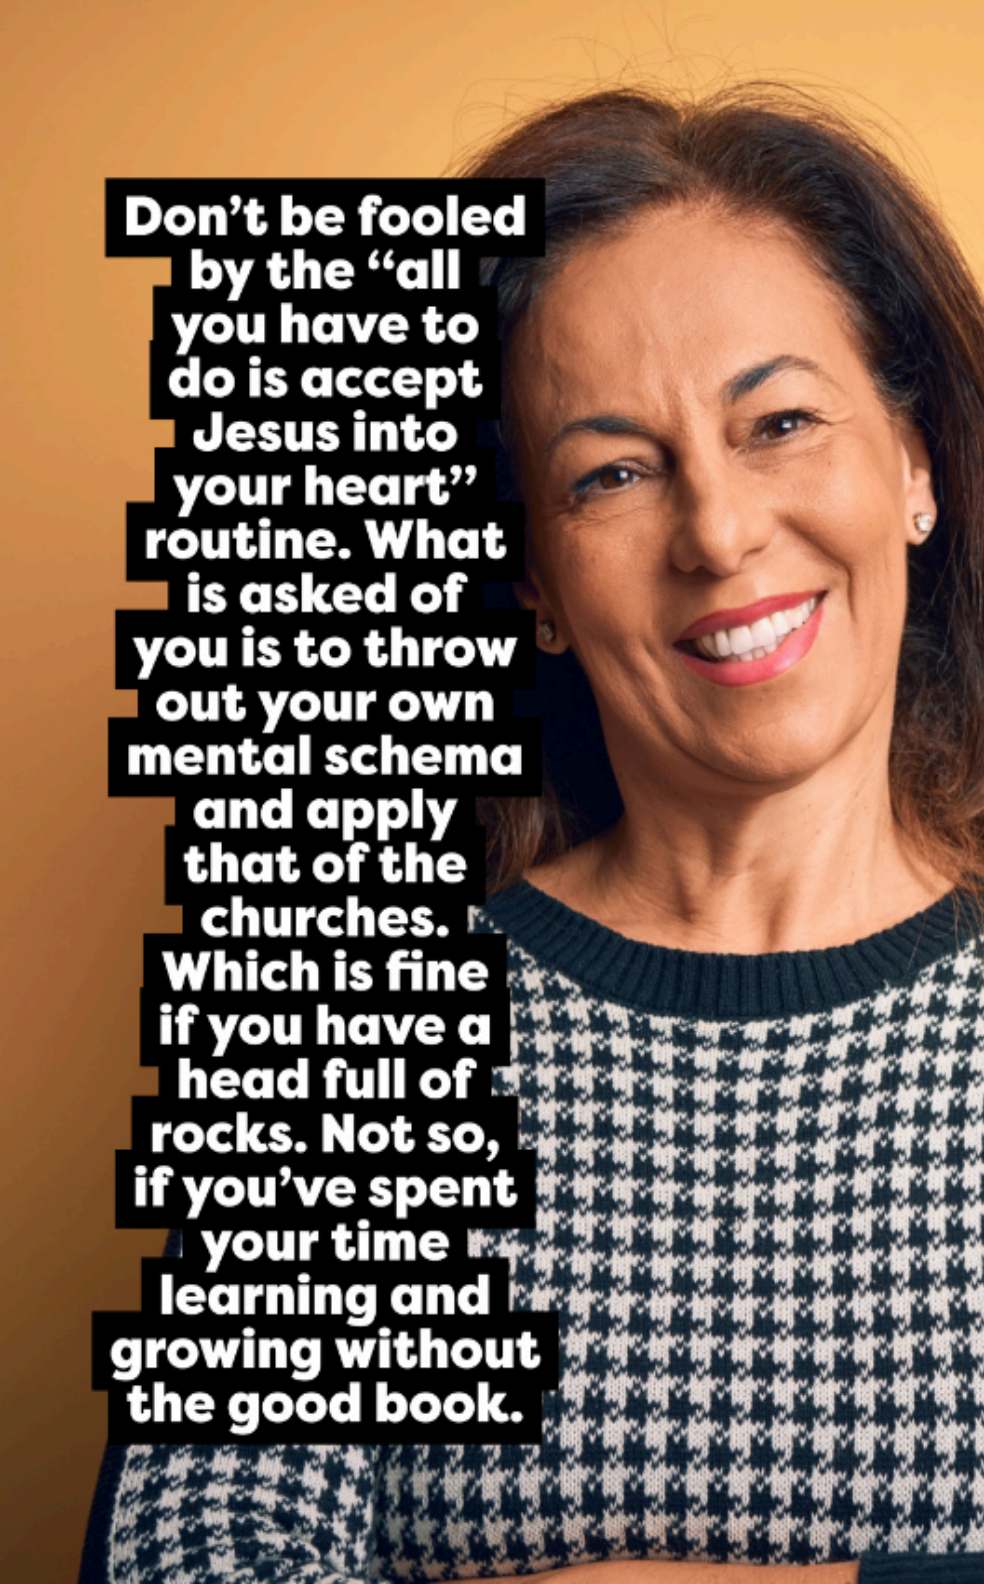

THE FRUITS OF THE SPIRIT ARE KINDNESS, GENTLENESS, HONESTY, SELF-CONTROL, FAITHFULNESS, LOVE, JOY, PEACE, AND PASTRY

Feed a man a fish and he will eat for a day.
Feed a man a cow and it will last a lot longer because cows are bigger, unless the fish is a big tuna or something.

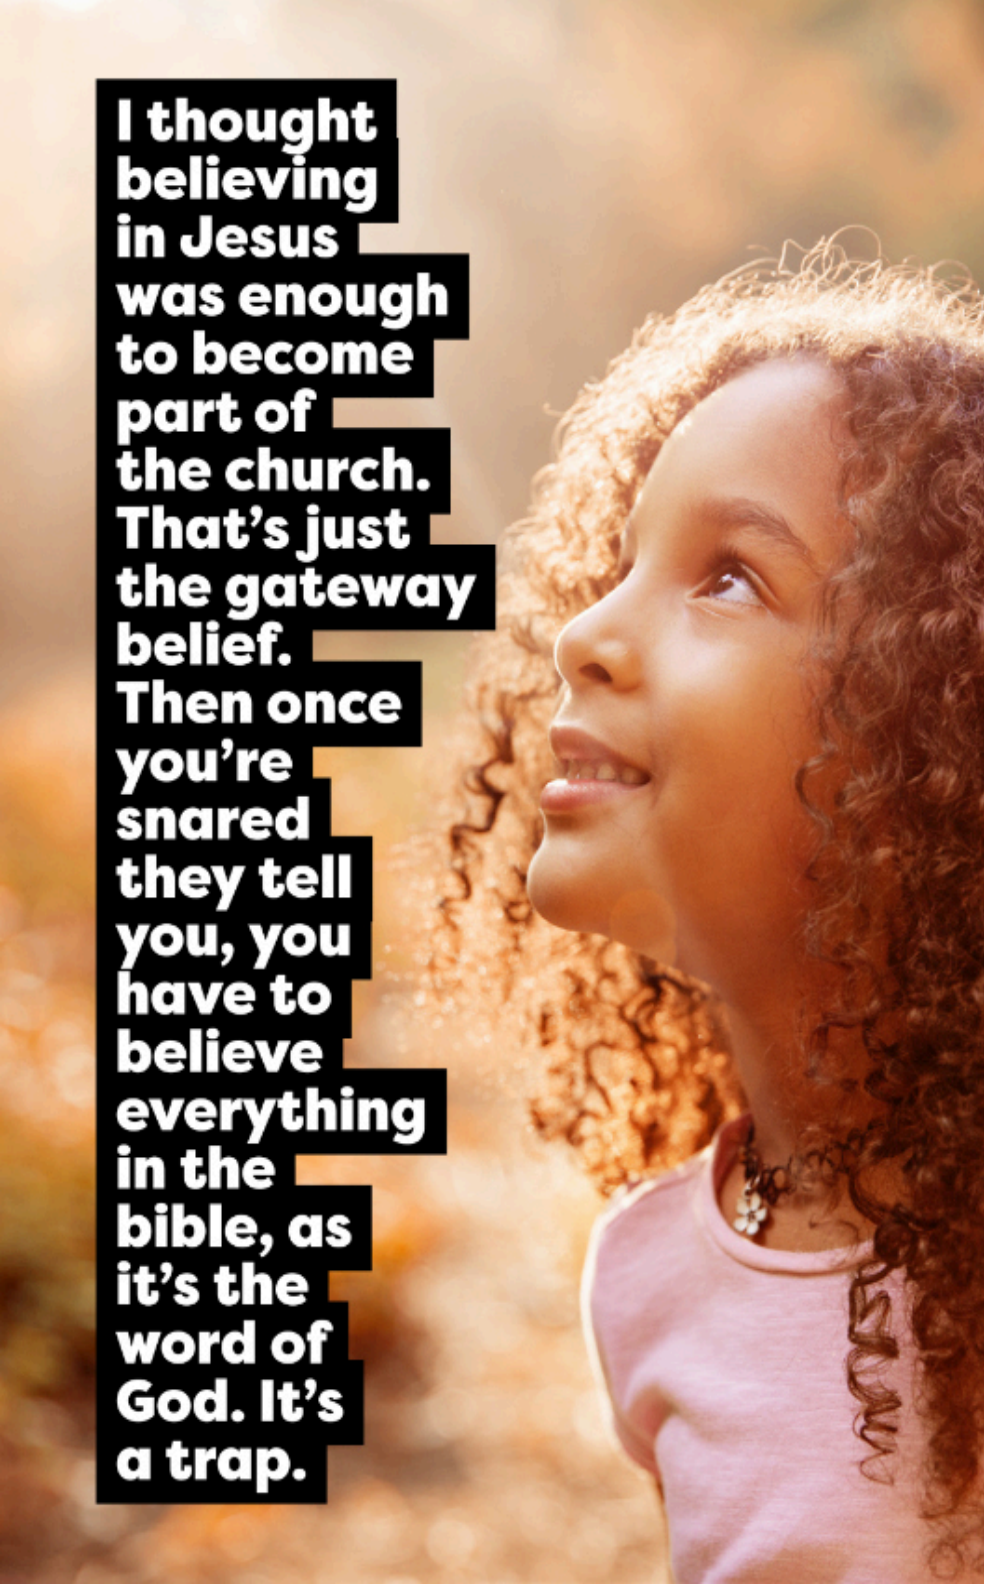

I call plain salted chips, Christian flavour.

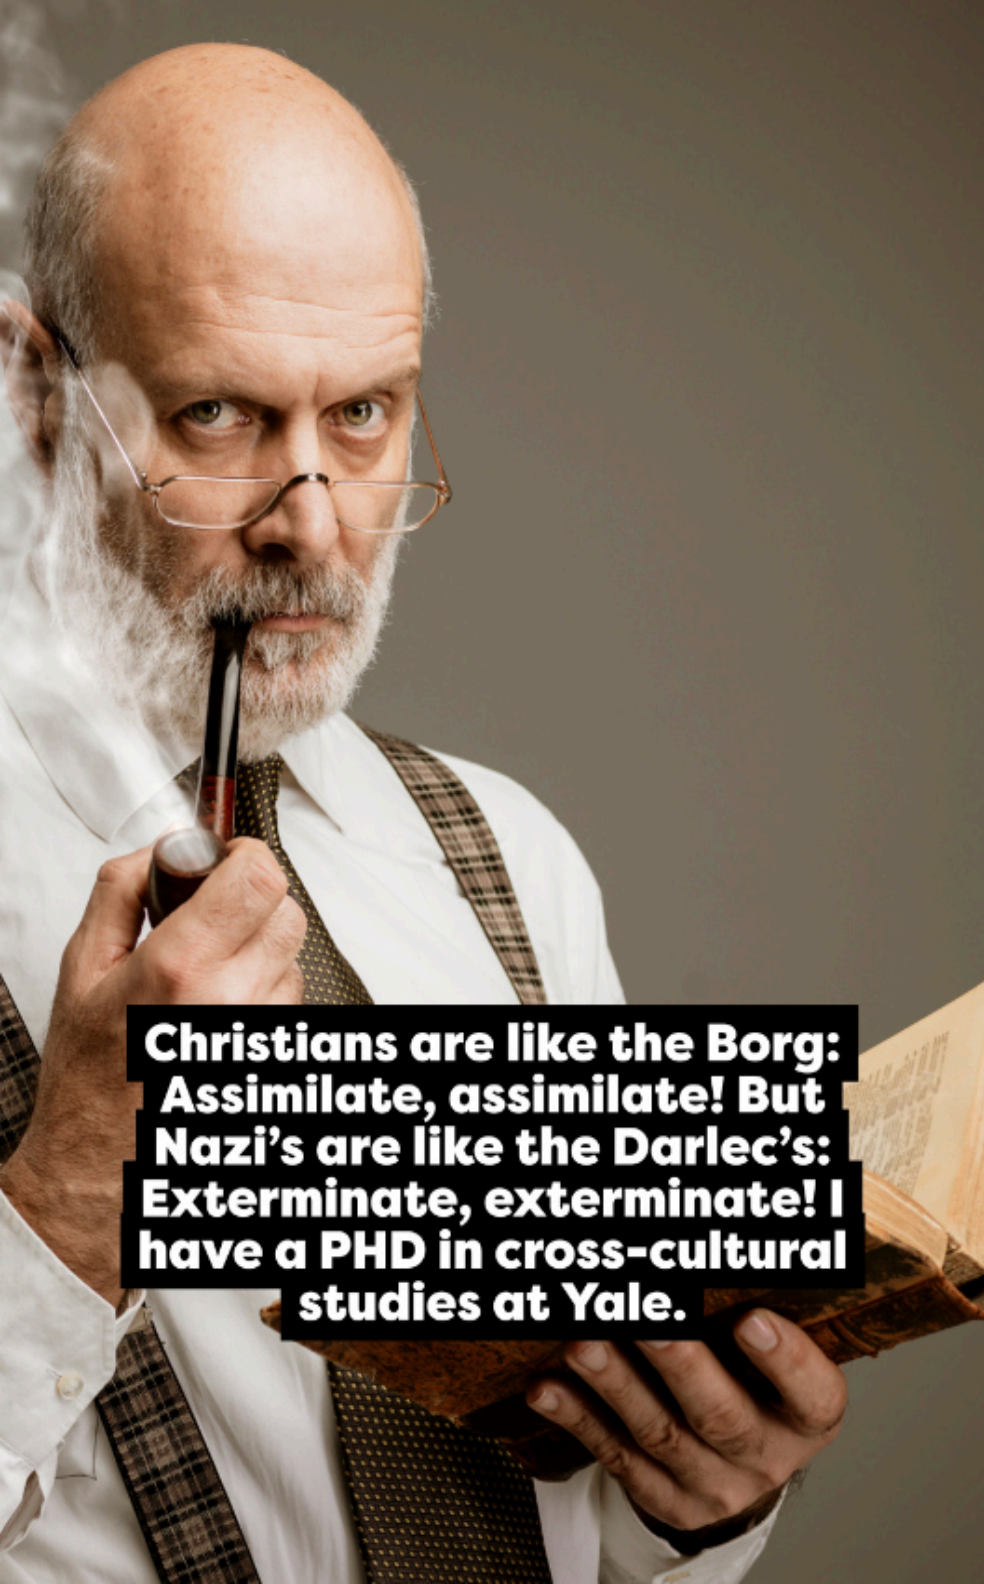

I was saved by Jesus, and not by the lifeguard who took all the credit.

When things go to hell, at least we've got thoughts and prayers. Oh, and Jesus, he's coming back, which goes without saying.

Don't be fooled by the "all you have to do is accept Jesus into your heart" routine. What is asked of you is to throw out your own mental schema and apply that of the churches. Which is fine if you have a head full of rocks. Not so, if you've spent your time learning and growing without the good book.

Jesus died to absolve me of what I did to those kids.

I thought believing in Jesus was enough to become part of the church. That's just the gateway belief. Then once you're snared they tell you, you have to believe everything in the bible, as it's the word of God. It's a trap.

Christians are like the Borg: Assimilate, assimilate! But Nazi's are like the Darlec's: Exterminate, exterminate! I have a PHD in cross-cultural studies at Yale.

God saves those who need saving. A lot of us are doing just fine, but the ones who ain't got their shit together, need Jesus.

This one guy was struggling with his faith, so I told him to read more into it. I meant more orthodox Christian books, not fucking Reddit.

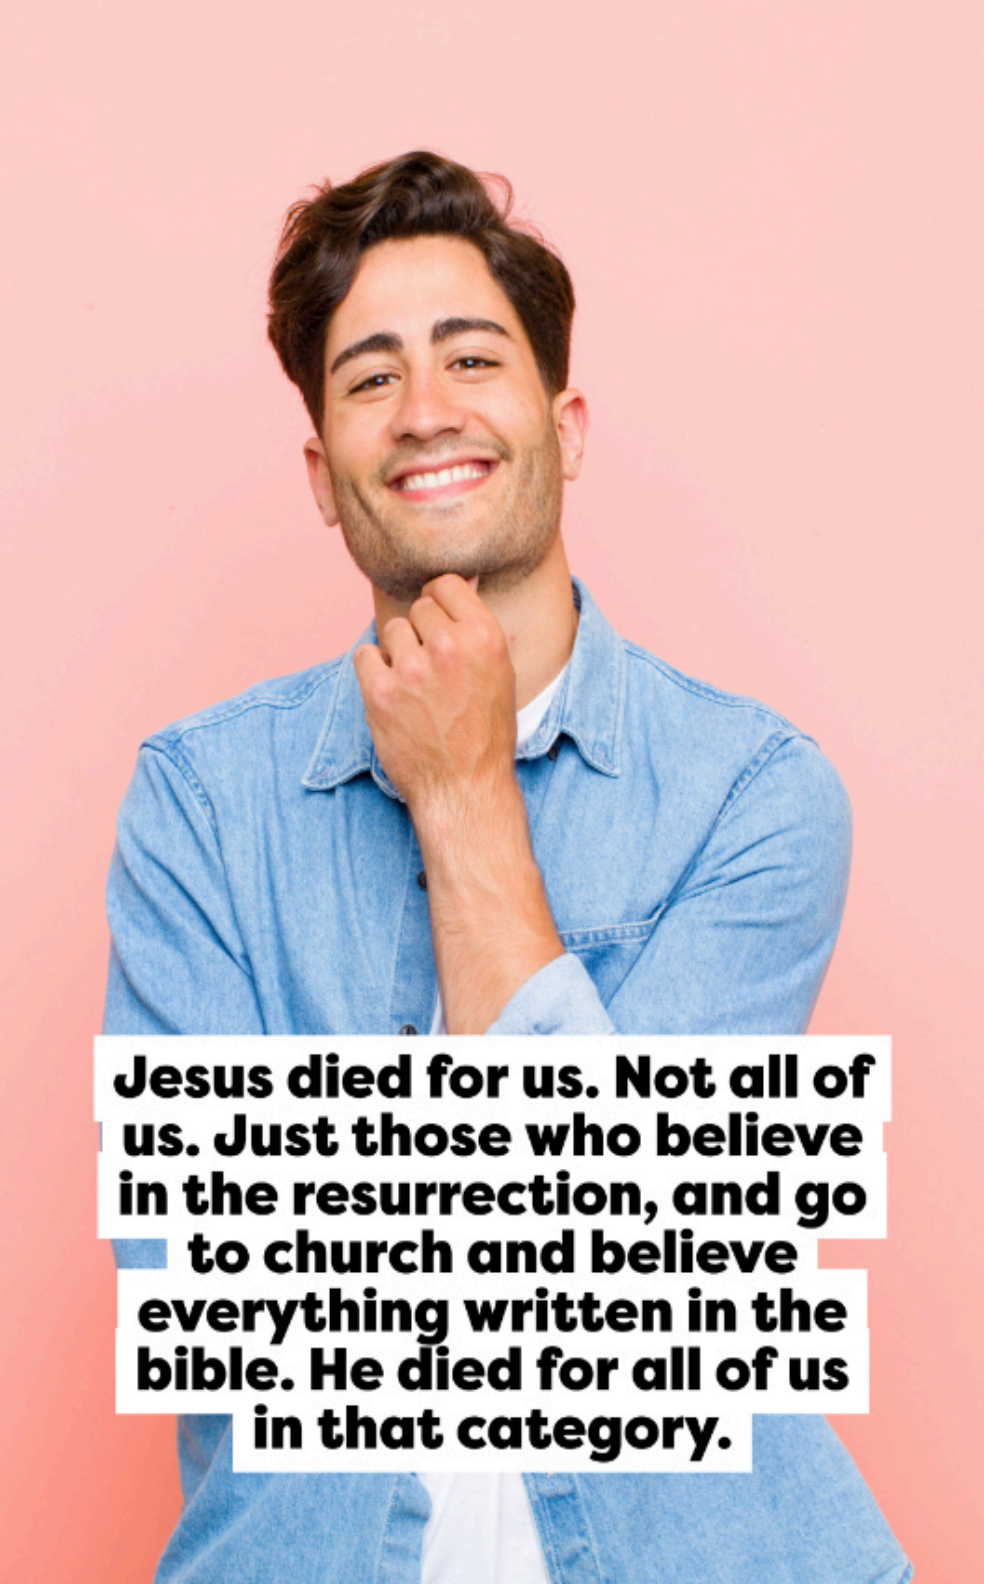

BLESSED ARE THE SHEEP FARMERS AND THEIR WIVES. DEFINITELY THEIR WIVES. SHEEP FARMER'S WIVES ARE SALT OF THE EARTH. BLESSED ARE THE SHEEP FARMER'S WIVES.
AND THEIR CHILDREN. WHAT WONDERFUL CHILDREN. YOU CAN'T SAY MUCH WRONG ABOUT THEIR CHILDREN. BLESSED ARE THE SHEEP FARMER'S CHILDREN.
NOT TO MENTION THEIR SHEEPDOGS, HARD-WORKING AND LOYAL BUT GENTLE WITH THEIR FLOCK. BLESSED ARE THE SHEEP FARMER'S SHEEPDOGS.
AND LET US NOT FORGET ABOUT THE SHEEP FARMERS SHEEP. WHAT CAN YOU SAY ABOUT SUCH A WONDERFUL FERTILE, FAT AND WOOLLY FLOCK? BLESSED ARE THE SHEEP FARMER'S SHEEP AND LET US NOT FORGET ABOUT THE SHEEP FARMER BROTHER-IN-LAW, I DON'T MUCH LIKE THE BLOKE, HE'S GOT SQUINTY EYES.

NOTE TO SELF:
DEBATE SCIENCE WITH MY CHRISTIAN FRIENDS.

Jesus was a big believer in unfettered capitalism. That's why he preached to the merchants. They were his real favourite.

Most Christians do better than the average joe because at least they have some framework for living. The education system doesn't provide that, because their goal is workers who have a need to buy stuff to fill the whole in their life.

Jesus wants us to be happy. But not too happy that we aren't doing all the other stuff Jesus wants us to do.

Jesus died for us. Not all of us. Just those who believe in the resurrection, and go to church and believe everything written in the bible. He died for all of us in that category.

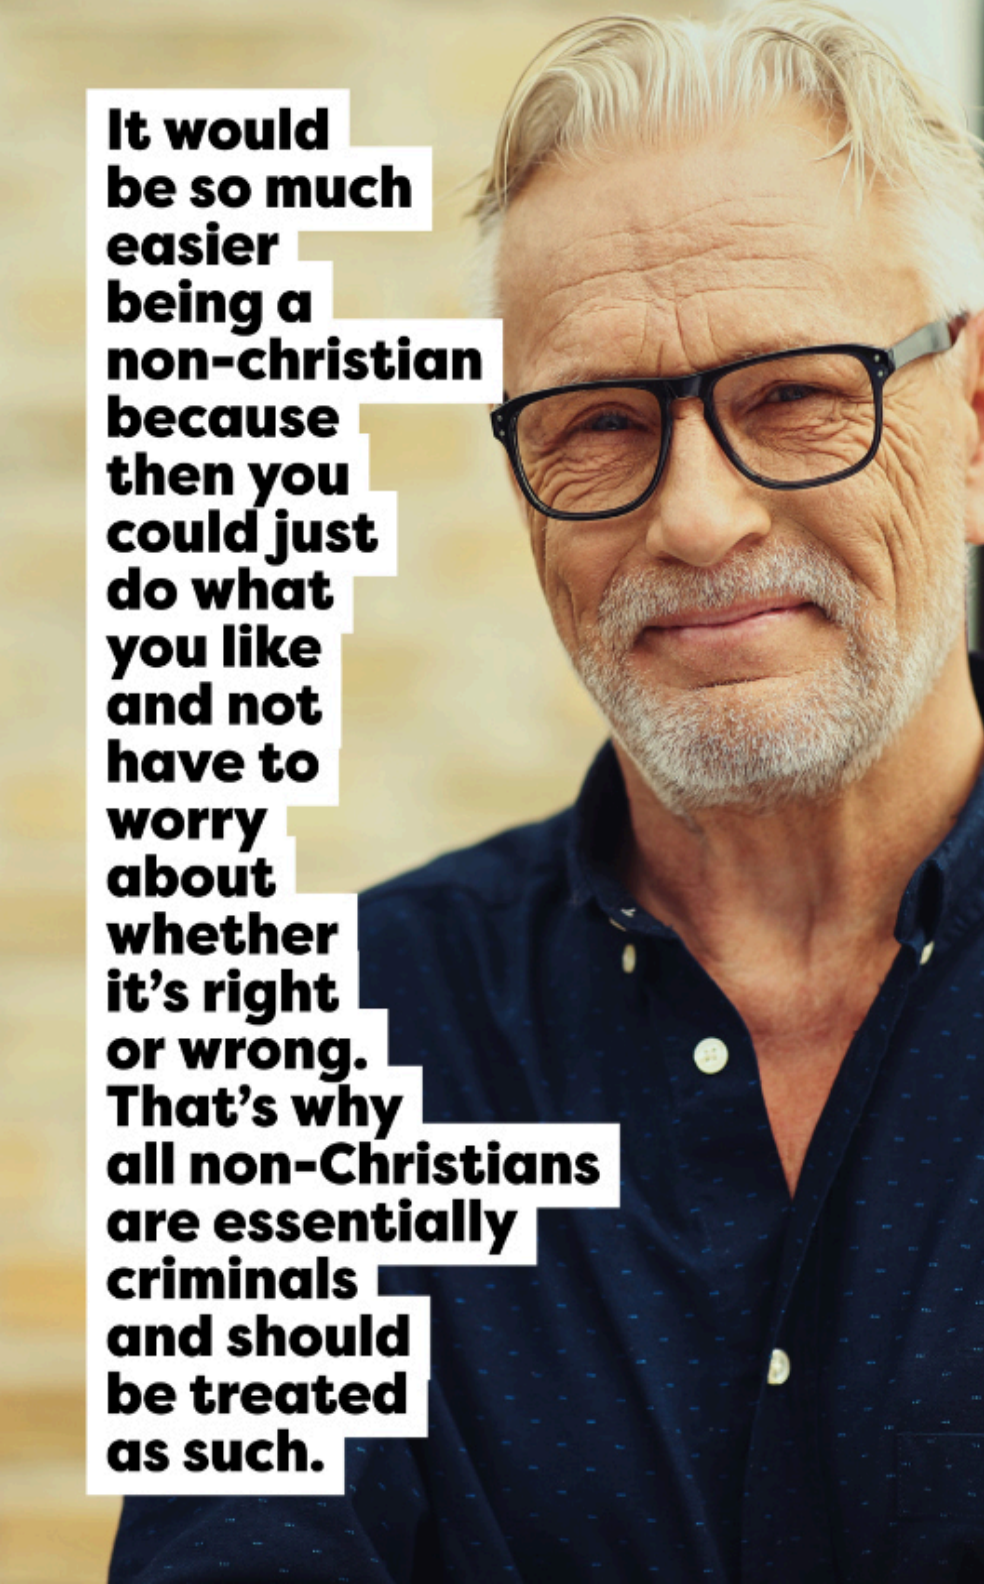

All these greenies that support life don't know what it means to be a good person in the eyes of Christ. Fuck the environment. The real world is the next one where everything is perfect. Greenies will burn just like the forests if I have my way.

I love the church.
It's the other
Christians I struggle with. Self-righteous know-it-all pricks.

Christian movies make us Christians look lame. So lightly salted you'd think they were dipped in seawater.

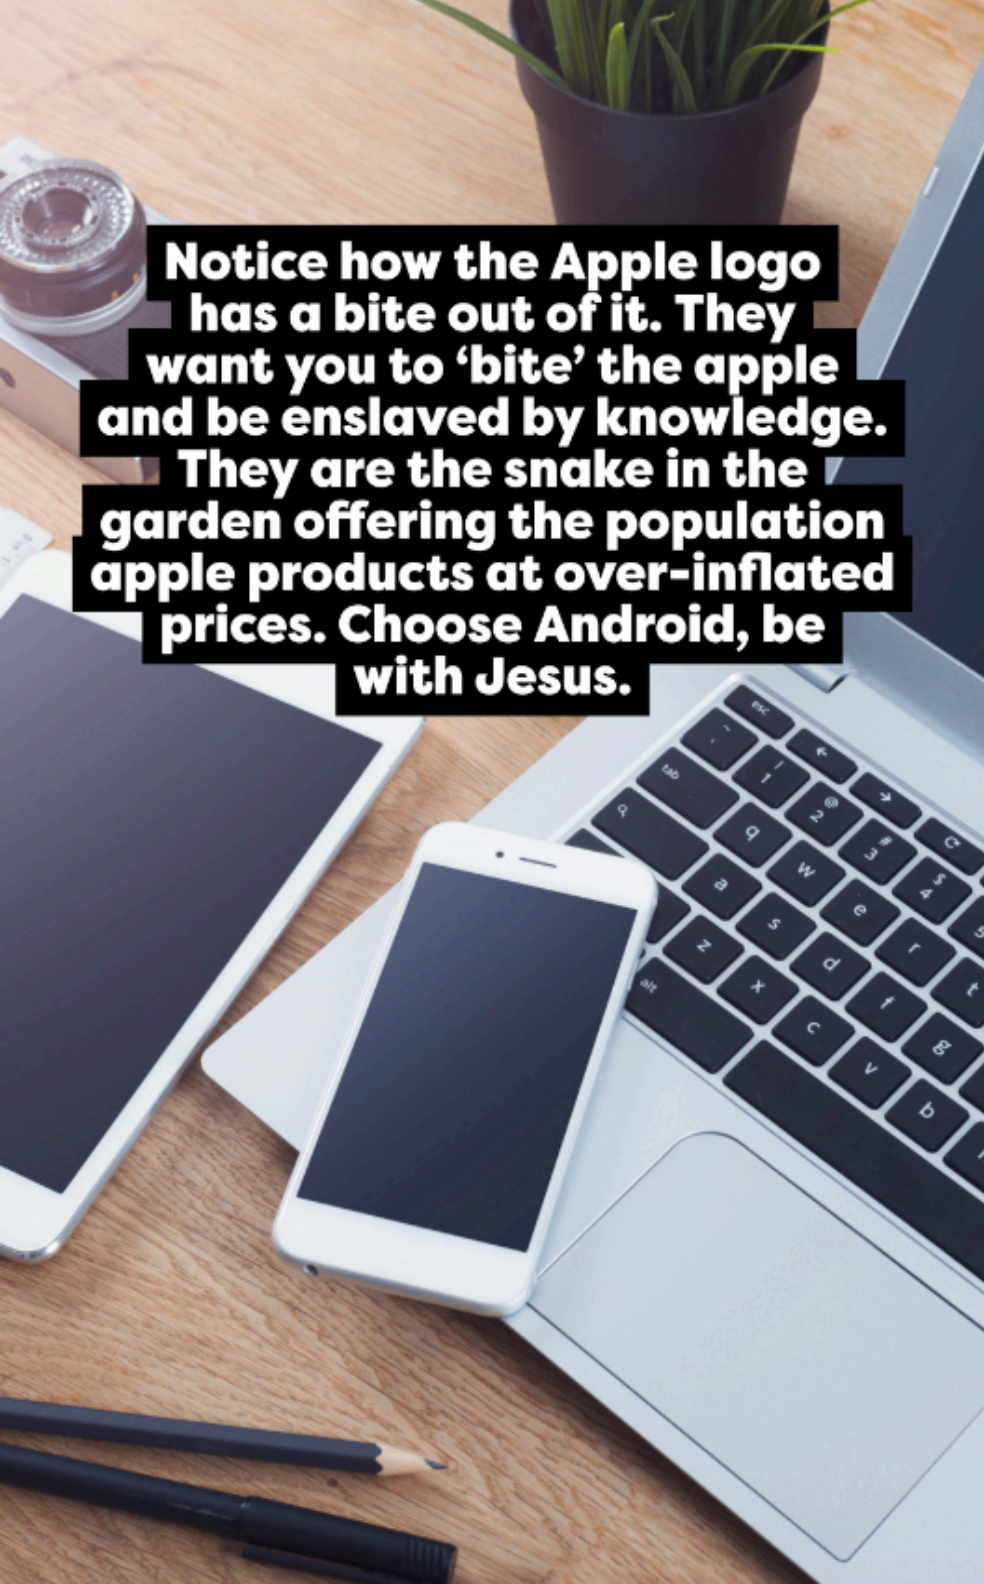

Meditation really helped me, but I felt uneasy because it wasn't biblical. But then I heard it was actually created by the Christians and the filthy Buddhists stole it from us. Knowing this meant I could fully embrace the power of meditation as a spiritual practice.

It would be so much easier being a non-christian because then you could just do what you like and not have to worry about whether it's right or wrong. That's why all non-Christians are essentially criminals and should be treated as such.

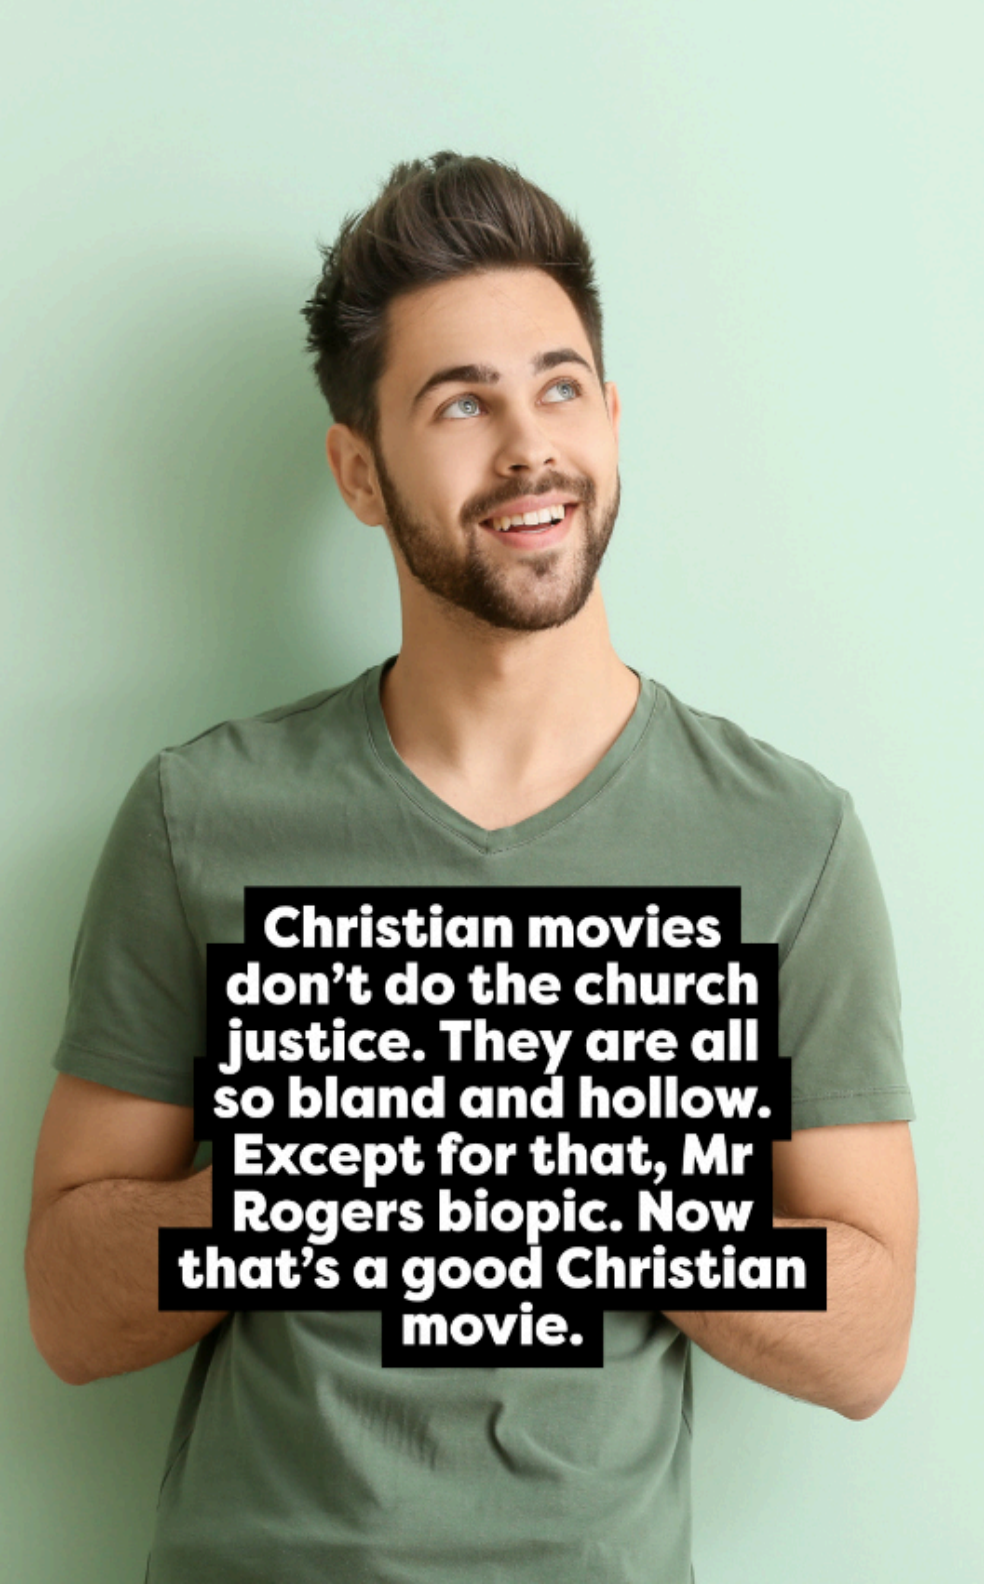

I was talking to this non-christian guy, and he was trying to give me advice. I'm the one with the sacred ancient knowledge. What a jerk-off.

Notice how the Apple logo has a bite out of it. They want you to 'bite' the apple and be enslaved by knowledge. They are the snake in the garden offering the population apple products at over-inflated prices. Choose Android, be with Jesus.

Our local minister in our small outback town is not all that religious it turns out. I saw him smash his toe on a chair leg and he didn't even yell, "Jesus Christ". Which is what most locals would have done and they're not even that interested in church.

If the Christians are right, I personally am fucked. Luckily, what Christians believe just doesn't add up. Thank God!

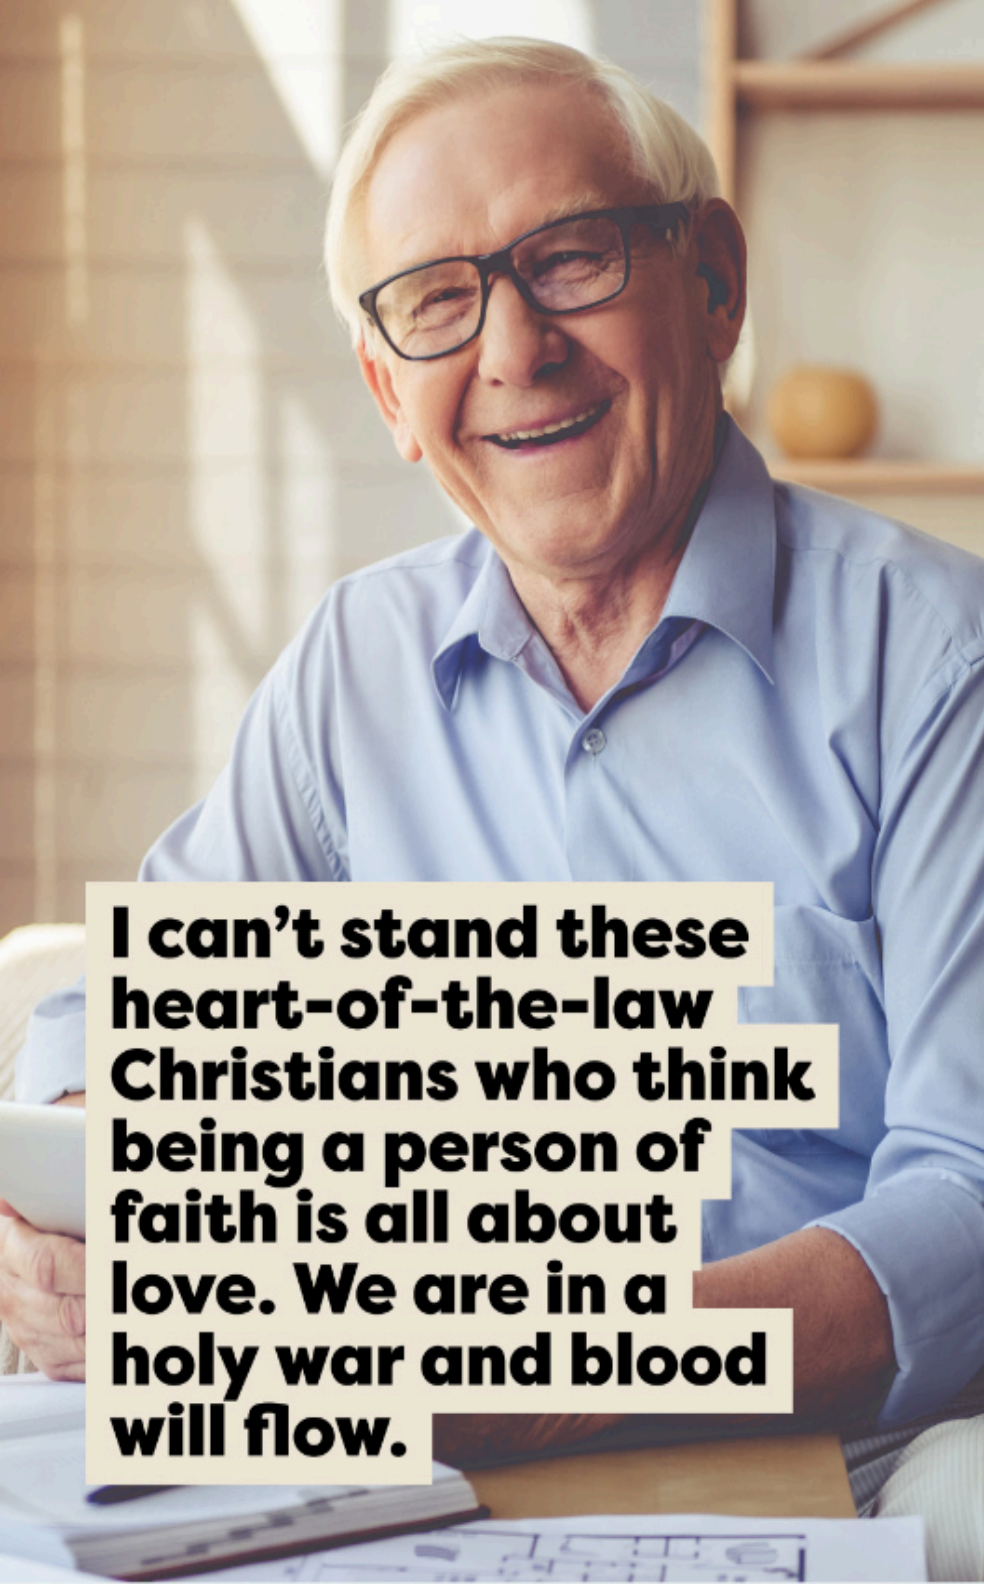

Christian movies don't do the church justice. They are all so bland and hollow. Except for that, Mr Rogers biopic. Now that's a good Christian movie.

It annoys me when non-Christians think they are not inferior, even though they're not blessed by the spirit. I'm just waiting to catch them out doing some bad non-Christian shit.

Grace is one of those things you act out to prove how devout you are. But it's definitely driven by the spirit of God.

My gay friend is Christian. He has Jesus, but what I think he really wants is cock.

I wrote a book called an apple a day keeps the apple monster at bay. It's available in all reputable Christian bookstores. It features a talking snake.

I can't stand these heart-of-the-law Christians who think being a person of faith is all about love. We are in a holy war and blood will flow.

JUST BECAUSE GOD CLOSES A DOOR DOESN'T MEAN HE WON'T SLAP THAT STUPID FACE OF YOURS!

God made the world in six days. I made my ant farm in eighty-two minutes. Suck on that!

THANK YOU

AMEN!

In the bible do they talk about a land of milk and honey? I'm pretty sure there is something about a land of milk and honey.

I've got what they call a twisted testicle. It's quite painful, but I leave it like that as a penance for all the ritual sacrifices I took part in. I was really into Satanism for a while, but then I found Jesus.

I just want christ to come inside me.

If Christians put as much effort into healthy families and healthy pair bonding as they do in denouncing gay people, they might have a positive impact on society.

I was listening to this great sermon about gratitude. It was really beneficial, but then they did the old switcheroo they always do, and made it about Jesus. Fucking Christians.

If I didn't have God,
I wouldn't have much.
I'm not very likeable.
That's the beauty of the church. Anyone is welcome as long as they keep with the official narrative.

I wanted to be a Christian but found Jesus rather underwhelming. He could have been so much more if he just applied himself.

All good Christian parents are authoritarian by nature and do not allow their children to think for themselves and develop critical reasoning skills, which leads to the devil and prostitution.

I stopped being a Christian because I was sick of feeling guilty when I whacked off.

It's really hard to think about Jesus all the time. I want to, but then I get hungry and start thinking about pies.

I KNOW THAT GOD IS REAL BECAUSE I DON'T HAVE TO CUT MY TOENAILS AS OFTEN AS MY FINGERNAILS.
- LEONNE

Judging by how most Christians see themselves politically. They don't know Jesus at all.

Paisley Andrews was my mentor in the church. He could do no wrong. When I found out he was having sex with my mother, I accepted it as God's way. When I found out he was having sex with my father, I wondered why he hadn't chosen me. I was wrong for questioning Paisley Andrews' motives. It was I who was lacking.

It’s perfectly ok to say ‘I’m angry at god,’ in the church because at least you’re admitting he exists.

Jesus is a socialist. It's in his bible.

Which Christian are you?

Scenario: Person 'A' is exhibiting erratic behavior and experiencing signs of mental illness.

Level 1 Christian: This person needs professional help from people who understand the principles of modern medicine derived through scientific inquiry. Their faith will help them get through it.

Level 2 Christian: This person needs professional help from people who understand the principles of modern medicine derived through scientific inquiry, in principle, but really feel the person is lacking faith, is plagued by evil spirits, and/or is under the influence of the Devil.

Level 3 Christian: This person needs an exorcism to remove an evil spirit or the devil's influence.

Level 4 Christian: This person is evil and is probably a witch/warlock and needs burning at the stake just in case.

TO ALL THE PEOPLE DOING IT TOUGH. CHANCES ARE IT'S YOUR OWN FAULT AND GOD IS JUST SHOWING YOU THAT YOU WERE WRONG.

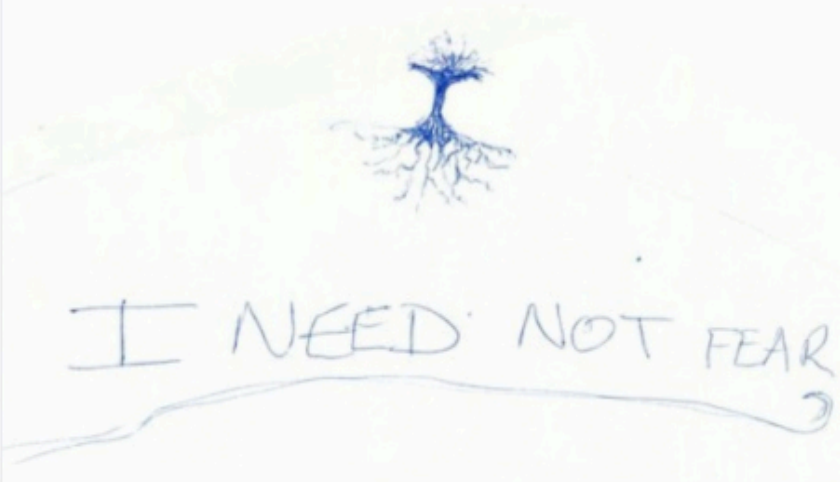

I think I can fit you in
